Wilson Submits Proposal to Railway Men on Wage Demand

TITLE GIVEN TO LAND FOR COAST FLEET

Acceptance Conditioned Upon Appropriations by Congress for Necessary Construction, Delegates Told

Plan Contemplates $10,000,000 for Preliminary Work and Ultimate Expenditure by U. S. of $4,000,000

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—"The navy's most pressing need" is the establishment of a naval base in California, Secretary Daniels told a delegation from Oakland and Alameda today in accepting tendered a deed for a base site at that city.

Daniels said his acceptance of the offer was conditioned upon appropriations by congress for the necessary construction at Alameda.

The presentation took place early this morning when Mayor Frank N. Otis of Alameda, formally turned over the lands to the United States government by handing to Secretary Daniels a deed recently voted by the people of Alameda. The secretary expressed his gratitude to the people of Alameda and to all who had assisted in making the gift possible.

ELSTON AND PHELAN, PRESIDENT DELEGATION.

Accompanying Mayor Otis were Senator James D. Phelan, Congressman J. A. Elston, Joseph E. Gaine and Joseph King, former president of the city of Alameda.

Secretary Daniels' party were Admirals J. M. Hilly, H. H. Rousseau, R. E. Counts, W. M. Parks and J. S. McKean.

Efforts to obtain an appropriation for a naval base on San Francisco bay are reported to be making considerable progress at Washington, where the delegation of western men, assisted by Congressman Elston of Berkeley, Congressman Johnson of San Francisco and other members of congress, are making the necessary apparent for better provision for the Pacific fleet. Their request is for an appropriation of $10,000,000 for such a base, with the ultimate expenditure of $4,000,000 as recommended.

HELM SELECTS SITE TENDERED TO DANIELS.

The Alameda site tendered to Secretary Daniels, 544 acres, is that which Admiral Hilly and an expert naval commission selected from among many sites on San Francisco bay several years ago. Various congressional committees have since given their approval to the findings of the Helm commission.

It is proposed to develop at the site a naval base capable of handling any ships of the new Pacific fleet which requires attention. Special submarine and destroyer basins, equal to 100 or so vessels each, are newly planned units of the plant. It is proposed to maintain the present navy yard at Mare Island for the care of other than the heavier ships of the fleet.

By previous action of the state and by the 20-to-1 vote of the city of Alameda two weeks ago the title of the United States government in the site is established. The site is given free by the city to the government, which was one of the influences leading to its choice. Others were its proximity to a great base of supplies and to railroads; the location at the foot of the Alameda; the extent of the physical excellence of the site; its nearness to a constant and adequate labor supply and the perfect living conditions afforded its employees.

Covenant Change is Opposed by Canada

LEASING WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

OTTAWA, Feb. 13.—Canada has given Great Britain notice that it objects to any change in the covenant of the League of Nations which will prevent the dominion from being a full fledged member of the league and having a vote in the assembly. After a meeting of the cabinet last night urgent representations were forwarded to the imperial government, asking for acceptance by Great Britain of the League of Nations to the peace treaty, which now is being considered by the United States senate.

H. S. Carhart, Noted Scientist, is Dead

PASADENA, Calif., Feb. 13.—Henry Smith Carhart, widely known as a scientist specializing in electricity, died at his home here today. He was 67 years old. Carhart was a member of the international jury of awards at the Paris Exposition and president of the board of judges of the department of electricity at the World's Fair in Chicago in 1933. He was a delegate to the electrical union conference held in Berlin in 1905.

Oakland Women See Divorce in Early Marriage

DR. MINORA KIBBE, who agrees and disagrees with dictum that boys should marry at 21 and girls at 18.

Girl, 18, Too Young, Dr. Minora Kibbe Declares

The bomb which fell in the Chicago convention of the Women's National Bar association yesterday when Mrs. R. Josephine Stevenson of California told the delegates that boys should marry at 21, girls at 18; that young women engaged in business should continue their work after marriage and that better children happier homes and fewer divorces result from early marriages, reverberated this morning in Oakland when Dr. Minora Kibbe, child expert and physician, partially agreed and partially disagreed with the convention address.

The joys of youth, the local woman medico insisted, should be the lot of every girl. "A girl of 18 or 19 has not always attained her physical growth," commented Dr. Kibbe. "And I would say that 21 years was a better age at which she should marry. She would be more fit to raise a family."

"I have seen women of 26, old before their time, crushed under the care of four or five children. Later they rise above the burden, but it is a hard time for them."

"Married women are longer lived than single ones," Dr. Kibbe contributes. "Married women with large families are longer lived than married women with small families. It is often the early marriage, however, that ends in divorce courts. Girls who wed at 18 or 19 seldom live their lives out with the husband."

"Marriage will come to be to women as to men, more of an incident and less than the whole of life," the Oakland physician declared.

Women who may bear good children are not necessarily good mothers. They often lack the ability to train the child. The ideal way to make a better mother is to have a family with the mother at home. But we are developing an age of specialists. It is a coming thing for women engaged in business to keep on in their work after marriage. Social experts are recognizing the tendency. Better children may result from the training under the child specialist than the mother. If the mother is not able to do her job.

"A married woman had better work for remuneration at something in which she is interested and provide the right training for her children. She has undertaken to neglect her offspring by devoting herself to cards, dancing and other foolish things."

"If a girl at 18 does not have a good time, she will want it later. Early marriages usually mean divorce. Mrs. P. A. Kramer, vice president, Oakland Federation of Mothers, offers to the discussion of the proper age at which a girl should marry to assure a happy home and protect herself against divorce."

"No girl at 18 knows her own mind any better than a boy at 21. They should neither assume the responsibility of marriage until they have some realization of what life means."

"A woman unless circumstances compel, should not continue business after marriage," Mrs. Kramer asserts. "She has undertaken a new mission. No child specialist can rear children so well as a mother, because the love of that mother for her offspring is a factor which cannot find substitution."

2000 PHONE MEN RECEIVE STRIKE FIAT

Electrical Workers Expected to Walk Out Tomorrow in Fight for Increase From $6 to $7 in Their Daily Wage

Order Will Become Effective Automatically if Demand is Not Met, Union Official Says; Operators May Quit

The expected strike of telephone company electrical workers in California, Oregon, Nevada and Oregon has been called for tomorrow morning, and if successful will mean that 2000 men will quit work. The action follows a demand made by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers to D. P. Fullerton, plant superintendent of the company, for a straight $7 a day scale in place of the $6 scale now obtaining.

Many of the company's men have joined associations of employees and are pledged in those organizations not to strike or walk out. Telephone operators, on this side of the bay, forswore the approaching strike and placed themselves on record by a vote of over 85 percent of their membership to remain at the switchboards and will not join any walk-out.

The executive board of the electrical workers' organization, put the case of the men as follows:

"The telephone company has refused to meet all or any part of the demands of the electrical workers, and nothing remains but to strike. R. E. Swain, secretary of the Pacific division of the Brotherhood, says the strike order has gone out and will go into effect automatically unless the telephone company meets the demand for the $7 a day increase. The issue was drawn at a conference which adjourned late yesterday afternoon in San Francisco. Miss Julia O'Connor, president of the operators' union, was present. It was intimated that the operators would not be called out at this time, but that unless the company agrees to recognize their union and pay the demanded scale of $7 a day for beginners and $4 for girls of more than three years' experience a sympathetic walkout would be ordered."

Following the strike in July, the operators were granted a wage increase to $13 a week for beginners and a scale that runs up to $19 for those who have served five years.

The electrical workers returned to work under a guarantee of $6 a day, after they had asked for $40. They were organized within a company a number of employees' associations for mutual consideration of problems and for conferences with company officials. The first outstanding place of the operators in the Eastbay cities, through their organization, to join in any strike action.

The position of the company is set forth in the following statement: "The company has had contractual relations for several years past with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, which organization represents certain of the electrical working employees in the company's plant department, and which employees were members of the I. B. E. W. organization."

Last July the company offered to enter into an agreement with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers for those plant employees who were members of the electrical workers' organization. This agreement was to confirm the wage and working conditions which were given at the termination of the strike for the men affected. This offer, however, was voted down by the organization.

"Since that time the company has met with officers representing the I. B. E. W. and committees of those plant employees who were members of the I. B. E. W. these meetings were given at the termination of the strike and the first of January this year."

"At each of these meetings the company again offered to enter into the same agreement as was offered them last July, the agreement being based on the wage conditions existing at the time of the meetings with the committee, but the company stated to the committees that they would prefer to enter into a new form of agreement; that the old form has become obsolete and that to enable the company to provide more profitable employment for this class of plant employees it suggested a new form of agreement which would enable the company and the employees affected to work more closely in solving the wage and employment conditions."

"The plan was outlined in a letter from the company to the chairman of the committee which met with the company. The committee refused to consider the company's proposition and we do not know whether the company's proposition

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 13.

Two men were shot dead and a woman was wounded by two bandits who held up a bond and brokerage establishment in Turk street late today.

The dead are:

BOWMAN.

The wounded:

Mrs. Minna Lasater, clerk in the shop.

Mrs. Lasater suffered a scalp wound and numerous lacerations when she jumped through the front window.

"The man named Bowman had come in to apply for work," said Mrs. Lasater. "Bowman and Stroud were talking when an automobile drew up to the curb. Two men got out. They entered the shop quietly and drew pistols. I seized some war savings stamps—about $500 worth—and jumped through the front window."

"The men must have shot at I jumped and the bullet glanced along the side of my head. I can't remember any other shots."

Stroud and Bowman were found lying on the floor, each shot through the heart.

Kolchak and Minister Shot In Great Haste

ADMIRAL KOLCHAK

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, Feb. 13.—News of the execution of Admiral Kolchak, former head of the All-Russian government, has been officially confirmed. He and one of his ministers, M. Peplarev, were shot at Irkutsk at 5 o'clock on the morning of February 7.

The revolutionary committee at Irkutsk decided at 2 o'clock in the morning that the two officials should be executed. The members of the committee then shot the victims quickly, fearing attempts at rescue.

It has not been explained why the admiral and Peplarev, who was premier and minister of the interior of the cabinet formed last November, were allowed to fall into the hands of the revolutionary committee. Agents of the allies are attempting to learn the reasons and place the responsibility.

Admiral Alexander Vasielvitich Kolchak became dictator and military head of the All-Russian government November 18, 1918. The successes of the Bolsheviks along the Trans-Siberian Railway forced him to evacuate Omsk and retreat eastward.

Born in 1874, Kolchak entered the naval service of Russia in 1891. He received decorations in the Russian Japanese war. On June 28, 1916, he was appointed commander of the Black Sea fleet, in 1916 being the youngest vice-admiral of all allied fleets.

Admiral Kolchak visited the United States in September, 1917, at the head of a special naval mission.

REDS ORDER BRITISH TO QUIT ODESSA

Bolshevik Commander Gives Battleships Three Days to Leave Harbor on Threat of Opening Fire; Desire Trade

General Uborevitch, at Head of Soviet Forces, Announces Army Will Not Molest Anyone But Spies and Thieves

CONSTANTINOPLE (Thursday), Feb. 12. (By The Associated Press)—General Uborevitch, 28-year-old Bolshevik commander at Odessa, has threatened that he will open fire on the British warships there within three days if they remain in the harbor, according to a message received here from Rear Admiral N. A. McCully, commanding the United States naval forces operating in Russian waters.

The message was sent after the admiral had conferred with a general, who expressed surprise that the British warships had fired on his troops.

General Uborevitch, the message reports, said he understood that the British had made a treaty with the Bolshevik government. He declared that merchant ships would be welcome at Odessa for commercial purposes. The general stated that he suppressed looting, immediately upon his arrival and had molested nobody but spies and thieves.

"The shops are reported open and the people moving about as usual. A sufficient food supply is on hand."

LEASING WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—Three generals, 200 other officers, 3000 soldiers and 4000 men, four armored trains and great quantities of munitions were captured by the Bolsheviks at Odessa; it is claimed in a wireless message from Moscow received today.

ANITA WHITNEY IS LINKED WITH I. W. W. AT TRIAL

Testimony by John Dymond, former I. W. W. member, that he had seen Miss Anita Whitney at I. W. W. headquarters in San Francisco, was the first incentive to disagreements between counsel that marked the morning's conduct of her criminal syndicalism trial before Judge James G. Quinn. The introduction of evidence regarding I. W. W. activities was opposed by the defense, and the ruling of the court on several of the points raised was withheld for further argument.

Dymond occupied the stand throughout the session. He told of Miss Whitney's assisting in spreading Labor Defense League literature in 1918. He testified in preliminary way with regard to sabotage.

J. E. Pemberton, assistant counsel for defense, was scored by Deputy District Attorney Myron Harris when he declared that "Miss Whitney was not being tried on the information against her, but for unpopularity with the police department."

Though she had been ill in bed since the last session of court and under the care of a physician, Miss Whitney was able to resume her attendance upon the trial today.

Deputy District Attorney John U. Calkins, who began conducting the case for the people with Harris, is still ill at his home in Berkeley and did not appear.

The hearing opened with questions to Dymond, who was re-cross-examined but recalled as to whether he knew Miss Whitney and if he had ever seen her in San Francisco. He said he had, at the headquarters of the I. W. W. on Kearny street and at the People's Institute on Market street. She was at the former place one day, he said, before it was raided by the police. He told of conversations the question was allowed as preliminary. Regarding the lack of a sabotage vote, Coghlan insisted that "The Republican and Democratic party conventions had never voted against sabotage but were not

PRESIDENT BELIEVED TO HAVE REFUSED ALL PLEAS FOR INCREASE

Proposition Submitted to Heads of Brotherhoods That Threaten Strike May Lead to Further Negotiations

BUILDING MEN OPPOSED TO WALKOUT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—President Wilson today handed representatives of 2,000,000 railroad workers his decision on their wage demands, and at the same time submitted them a proposition which is expected to lead to further negotiations, it was authoritatively stated at the White House.

It was understood that the President refused demands for immediate wage increases of approximately 40 per cent.

What constituted the counter proposition was not disclosed by White House officials.

Immediately after conferring with Wilson, the railway men's committee, consisting of Timothy Shea, head of the firemen; E. J. Manion, head of the railroad telegraphers, and B. M. Jewell, head of the American Federation of Labor railway department, met other railroad representatives at a hotel. This meeting lasted only a few minutes and the union men went to A. F. of L. headquarters for a further conference.

The White House was expected to issue a statement later in the day. Meantime there was no intimation whether the President had offered a substitute for an increase in wages in the nature of a continuation of the fight on the high cost of living, or whether he asked the workers to delay pressing their demands until the railroad's were returned to the private owners March 1.

The railroad department of the American Federation of Labor, announced that the President's proposal would have to be "put up to the men" before any announcement could be made by the union representatives. "We shall give careful consideration to the President's statement and advise him of our position later, probably by letter," said Shea.

Union leaders refused to say whether the President had granted them the increase they asked. There were indications, however, that the railroad department of the American Federation of Labor, announced

Elihu Root Is Mentioned For World's League Court

By WEBB MILLER, United Press Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—The council of the League of Nations is considering appointment of eleven jurists of international reputation to compose a committee for an international court. It was learned authoritatively today.

The name of Elihu Root has been mentioned as a possible selection. Root's name has been urged, it was said, regardless of whether the United States becomes a member of the league. Members believed his presence eminently desirable, it was said, and will ask his appointment even if America refuses the league.

Otherwise his presence will be contingent on America's entry.

Other names mentioned included Prof. Fausta, Italy; Rafael Almaraz, Spain; Senor Drago, former minister of foreign affairs in Argentina, and Lord Phillimore, Great Britain.

The council decided to admit Switzerland to membership in the league because of the Swiss plea that their traditional neutrality must not be hampered.

The council's next meeting will be held about Easter in Rome. Official declaration of the constitution of the League of Nations will be made at that time and members of the league will be appointed.

Witness Tells Court I. W. W. Planned Centralia Slaying

By CLEM J. RANDAU, United Press Staff Correspondent.

GRAY'S HARBOR COURTHOUSE, MONTESANO, Wash., Feb. 13.—Testimony in the armistice day murder trial of eleven I. W. W. here today, Tom C. Morgan, who was in the I. W. W. hall at the time of the alleged massacre of legion men, declared the I. W. W. planned to place men in various hotels and rooming houses across the street from their hall.

During Morgan's testimony the eleven prisoners showed great emotion. Some of them squirmed in their seats as he mentioned the part certain of them played.

Morgan testified that the first of the shots that killed four legionaries was fired from a building across the street from the hall.

This refuted the testimony that the I. W. W. fired when the former soldiers charged their hall.

"Some of the soldiers were marking time and others were closing up when the first shots were fired," he said. "The first shots came from one of the buildings across the street."

REGULAR BIDS DEMANDED IN SHIPS' SALE

Senate Resolution Directs U. S. Shipping Board to Hold Public Auction in Disposing of 30 German Liners

Chairman Payne Declares the International Marine Offers $28,000,000 for Vessels Now Worth $300,000,000

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—A Senate resolution directing the Shipping Board not to sell the thirty former German liners which the board plans to dispose of at public auction here, except through regular public bidding after three months' advertising and then only if better offers are received, was introduced today by Senator Ashurst, Democrat.

In introducing the resolution Senator Ashurst said he did not intend it as a reflection on the Shipping Board. He said, however, the ships were a necessary adjunct of the navy.

Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee, declared that the government's ship holdings should be disposed of without legislation by Congress.

"The only theory which can justify the sale of these vessels," he said, "is that the Shipping Board has decided to sell every ship and get the government out of the business of owning and operating ships."

"The question seems to be whether we should adopt a national plan, or turn our ships into hands of private enterprise, to operate under our flag, as now doing with the railroads," said Senator Nelson, Republican, Minnesota.

"If we are ever to have an American merchant marine now is the time to establish it," said Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina.

"If the Congress does not act soon," said Senator Ashurst, "the Shipping Board will have the passenger ships while we are here inactive."

Chairman Payne of the Shipping Board was requested to appear before the Senate Commerce Committee today to explain the proposed sale of the thirty former German passenger liners at public auction next Monday. Chairman Jones said that the committee desired information owing to the agitation against the sale.

COMPANY OFFERS $28,000,000 FOR SHIPS.

The International Mercantile Marine has offered $28,000,000 for the ships. Senator Ashurst declared the sale were rejected, Chairman Jones announcing that he would not accept any single bid for all ships.

The resolution was offered in the midst of debate on the sale of the ships. Senator Ashurst declared that was a fact that the Shipping Board and Emergency Fleet Corporation intended to sell the vessels to the International Mercantile Marine for $28,000,000. He said the vessels had a pre-war value of $154,000,000, a present value of $300,000,000.

Chairman Jones of the commerce committee previously had told the Senate that he had no idea that the ships were to be sold to the International Mercantile Marine under a secret understanding between the board and British interests were true.

After several hours' debate, Chairman Jones of the commerce committee objected to the introduction of the Ashurst resolution on the ground that a concurrent resolution should be referred to committee. The resolution then was referred to his committee.

Senator Randell, Democrat, Louisiana, told the Senate it was "ridiculous to think that the Shipping Board would sell the fleet at the price quoted and Senator Jones announced that he had announced that while the debate was in progress he had talked with Chairman Payne of the Shipping Board on the telephone and that Payne had told him that the statement was an absolute falsehood and that no secret agreement had been arranged for the sale of the fleet.

"I talked to the board on the telephone this morning," said Senator Jones. "They advised me that they simply proposed to open bids and consider proposals Monday. After that they proposed to take into consideration all of the circumstances and decide whether they will accept any of the bids or refuse all of them."

Asked by Senator Borah, Republican, of Idaho, whether he had inquired specifically about the reported understanding with the Mercantile Marine Corporation, Senator Jones replied:

BELIEVES THEY ARE HONEST AND PATRIOTIC

"I do not, but I do not believe there is any truth in the report. The administration officials are not of my party, but I believe they are honest."

Wilson Gives Answer to Railroad Men's Demands

President refused to grant their complete demands for a horizontal increase of approximately 40 percent for two million railroad employees. The proposed strike of the maintenance of way employees of the railroads will be fought by the building trades department of the American Federation of Labor, according to announcement this afternoon by John Donlin, head of that department.

Donlin announced he would issue orders to all building trades workers to remain at their work in railroad yards and he further stated that members of the trades will be ordered to replace the maintenance of way men wherever there is unemployment of building trades men.

There had been a long dispute as to jurisdiction between the maintenance of way organizations and the building trades department of the American Federation of Labor. Donlin maintains that the maintenance of way organization has ordered men on strike that it has no jurisdiction over.

When the railroad men greeted the President they told him he was looking very well. "I have just been shaved," said the President. "That helps a bit."

The President, sitting in his wheelchair in a corner under the portico, wrapped in a blanket, shook hands with the men when Secretary Tumulty presented them. They stood up throughout the conference, with their overcoats on, but their hats in their hands. The President pressed them to put their hats on, because of the dampness, but they refused. After reading his statement the President asked them to give consideration to his suggestion and they promised to do so.

Shea immediately notified the other union officials, who have been conferring with Mr. Hines, advising them to call a conference to consider the President's statement. He indicated that the conference would consume most of the day and might be continued tomorrow. He said there was no disposition on the part of the union men to act hastily and that they desired to make a complete examination of the President's statement before reaching a decision.

PRESIDENT'S PROPOSAL PROMISED CONSIDERATION. BERKELEY CITY LOAN DEFENDED

BERKELEY, Feb. 13.—Councilman Carlton T. Bartlett, Berkeley's commissioner of finance and revenue, who has been accused of bad business ethics as a result of lending the city's money to banks outside of Berkeley, today defended his action before the city council. He said reports show that city funds have been loaned to outside banks, since 1913.

Councilman Charles D. Heywood, while not in favor of loaning the city's money to banks, said that he was in favor of putting a commissioner to run his own department in the way he saw fit. No action was taken by the council.

The specific act of Bartlett which has brought criticism from other members of the council is the withdrawing of surplus municipal funds to the amount of $60,000 from local banks and placing it in Hayward institutions.

Councilman Bartlett defends his action by declaring that the Hayward banks are paying 3 per cent interest on the money as compared to but 1 per cent offered by Berkeley banks.

"The extra return to the city is of no consequence," is the answer of Councilman Heywood. "Councilman Bartlett's action is setting a precedent. The banks are the only ally we should stand by. When we want anything in Berkeley we go first to the banks and we have always had liberal response."

"Why should Berkeley's money develop other towns which have done nothing for us?" Councilman E. T. Harms asked. "Might as well move the city hall to Albany to save expenses." Councilman George Schmidt said. "I am against banking outside the city and intend to do everything in my power to bring the money back."

Leaves Liquor as Garbage Oakland Man Tells Court

When national prohibition went into effect a large supply of assorted liquors on the business premises of D. Ravizza, at 1103 Seventh street, Oakland, was left intact to be turned over to the garbage man because it was not fit for human consumption.

At least this was the explanation made today before U. S. District Judge Frank Rudkin by an attorney representing Ravizza, who had entered a plea of guilty to a charge of having a large stock of liquor in his possession.

It was urged in behalf of the defendant that although he had pleaded guilty, he technically was guilty less inasmuch, according to his attorney, as the liquor had not been touched and was to have been carried away by a junk man because it was not of sufficient purity to be consumed.

"That sounds mighty fishy to me," observed Judge Rudkin, and imposition of sentence was postponed for one week pending further investigation.

It was intimated the liquor might be brought into court and tested despite the fact there has been no rush of applicants for the position of tester.

Ravizza was one of three Eastbay residents included with twelve San Francisco residents who were named in information filed by the Federal authorities charging various degrees of violations of the prohibition amendment. Informations were filed against Francisco Arribas of Crockett, charged with the possession of assorted varieties of liquor, and Aristodas Mousalemas, 1761 Seventh street, Oakland, charged with the possession and sale of gin and brandy.

David Butler and Edward Stone of San Francisco pleaded guilty to a violation of the national prohibition act and were sentenced to pay fines of $250 or serve thirty days in jail. They told the court they had been walking through Golden Gate Park and found a jug of wine secreted in the bushes. They said they had drawn the cork, sampled the contents of the jug and then fled, running right into the arms of a police man.

Chihuahua Tax Laws on Mining Modified

CHIHUAHUA CITY, Mex., Feb. 13.—Laws modifying taxes imposed by the Chihuahua state authorities were passed recently. One modifies the state tax on mining, placing a levy of 2 per cent upon the value of the metals, but establishing a scale for metals of lower value, requiring from one-fourth of one per cent to 1 1/2 per cent, according to their grade.

The other legal provision abrogates all taxes heretofore paid for corn, flour, beans and cattle exported from any place within the territory to foreign countries.

ACTRESS' SONG WINS ELECTION FOR HUSBAND

ASHTON-UNDER-TYNE, England, Feb. 12, (United Press)—Sir Walter de Frece, millionaire theatrical impresario, has been elected member of parliament from the Ashton-Under-Tyne district, it was announced today. Polling in the by-election took place January 31. The vote, which was added officially today, as follows: Sir Walter de Frece, coalition-Unionist, 884.

W. C. Robinson, Laborite, 8127. Sir Arthur Marshall, Liberal, 3211.

Interest in the election throughout England was tense because of the efforts of Lady Tilly to get the impresario elected. De Frece is generally known as "Vesta Tilly's husband." Lady Tilly took a prominent part in his campaign. Her "Piccadilly Johnnie With the Little Glass Eye" and other popular songs it was admitted, played a far greater part in the election than her husband's political views, although he ran on a platform supporting the government and had powerful opposition from labor. The theatrical profession bet heavily on "Vesta Tilly's husband."

No fewer than fourteen languages are spoken in Chicago by colonies of at least 10,000 persons each.

PIERCE ARROW "The First Fifty"

TRUCK NO. 17.

Although Truck No. 17 actually has traveled 75,000 miles in the service of the West End Consolidated Mining Company of Tonopah, Nevada, this total cannot be taken as a measure of its performance. Road and climate conditions are such that they cause excessive wear and tear. Yet the veteran has been out of service only 15 days a year on an average. Repairs have cost only $2000, a remarkable figure when the unusual punishment given the truck is considered. The mining company showed that it appreciated the worth of Pierce-Arrow by purchasing two additional five-ton units.

NEWBERRY SIDE PREPARES FIGHT

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 13.—Aroused by the testimony of William H. McKeegan, former "boy mayor" of Flint, Mich., who testified he had been threatened with a penitentiary sentence unless his district voted for Senator Truman H. Newberry in the campaign of 1918, counsel for the defense of Newberry and his 122 aides charged with vote frauds, prepared at the opening of today's session of the trial to subject McKeegan to a savage cross-examination.

Attorney Martin W. Littleton today began a hot probe into McKeegan's testimony, which was that the Michigan supreme court had reversed a verdict of guilty against McKeegan on an assault and robbery charge after he had "swung his district for Newberry." He testified that a promise to save him from the penitentiary on condition he work for Newberry was made prior to the election by Richard R. Fletcher, est men and patriotic citizens, I feel satisfied they have not entered into any such an understanding. "I have been told that from surveys made the board believes it will cost from $50,000,000 to $50,000,000 to put these ships in proper condition. I think that is an administration matter and I have confidence it will be decided wisely."

Senator Jones added that Chairman Payne several days ago had requested a hearing before the commerce committee to explain the whole situation. Application for an injunction against the Shipping Board and the Emergency Fleet Corporation to prevent the sale of the former German liners at public auction next Monday was filed in the District of Columbia supreme court today by William Randolph Hearst of New York, acting in his capacity as a taxpayer.

Chief Justice McCoey issued a rule requiring the defendants to show cause Monday morning why a temporary injunction should not be issued.

Chairman Payne of the Shipping Board announced that the application for an injunction would be presented to the court on Monday, as planned, but that final action on them would be deferred until the injunction proceedings had been disposed of finally.

BOSTON, Feb. 12.—The Massachusetts Senate today unanimously adopted an order protesting against the sale of the fleet of confiscated German merchant ships to the International Mercantile Marine company.

The order condemns the sale of the ships to any concern not pledging itself to maintain them under American registry, fly the American flag and turn them over to the government in case of war.

WOMEN TOLD BATTLE FOR BALLOT WON

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—The fifty-first annual and final convention of the National Woman Suffrage Association opened here today with 2000 delegates in attendance. The first meeting turned chiefly to a celebration of the expected early victory of equal suffrage for women and Mrs. C. Chapman Catt, president of the organization, urged the delegates to rejoice "because there is no earthly power that can do more than rejoice by a trifle the final enfranchisement of women."

"The women, be glad today," the president said. "Let your voices ring out the gladness in your hearts. There will be no more another day like this. Let the joy be unconfined and let it speak so clearly that its echo will be heard around the world and find its way into the soul of every woman of any and every race and nationality who is yearning for opportunity and liberty still denied her voice, applaud, be glad—you've won."

A congress of the league of women voters, which suffrage leaders expect will absorb the suffrage association, began yesterday to continue through next Wednesday. Its initial meeting developed sharp differences of opinion among Republican and Democratic women and political observers today were interestedly awaiting developments which suffrage leaders themselves said would indicate whether women of widely divergent political opinions could establish and maintain a non-partisan political organization.

MISS WHITNEY IS AGAIN IN COURT

for that reason, to be construed as favorable to it." The objection was sustained.

Further argument developed over the remoteness of the events to which witness was testifying. He stated that they occurred in August, 1918. It was held that this was a year prior to the passage of the act under which Miss Whitney is being tried. This objection was not sustained.

SEVERAL IDENTIFIED AS I. W. W. MEMBERS

Demand was led to identify as I. W. W.'s a number of the persons upon whose bond Miss Whitney is said to have subsequently appeared, and others with whom the State expects to identify her. These included Godfrey Ebell, once I. W. W. secretary in San Francisco, and Albert Fox, his successor; Frederick E. Dymond, whom Dymond had been identified as I. W. W. member; and Basil Saffores, co-defendants in the Stockton I. W. W. prosecution.

Witness said he had first heard of the I. W. W. in 1912, when he was being practiced in connection with the Ford and Suhr cases.

COURT SUSTAINS AN OBJECTION BY DEFENSE

The offer of the defense to show that the I. W. W.'s adopted the third Communist manifesto, passed at Moscow, as did also the Communist Labor party, met with the objection of the defense, which was sustained by the court. Judge Quinn held that he could not see the relevancy since the fact of the Communist Labor party adoption of that instrument already had been established.

Dymond was led over a part of the ground which Albert Coutts, another I. W. W. informant, covered Wednesday, with regard to phosphorus bombs, used for firing haystacks and barns of farmers who were recalcitrant in I. W. W. eyes. He said he had seen phosphorus intended for these purposes at Stockton.

The court was expected to render later today a decision as to how far the prosecution would be permitted to go to show activities of the I. W. W. The state contends that, since the I. W. W.'s had been engaged in "example" were endorsed by the national Communist Labor party convention in the party program and platform, and this in turn adopted by the California branch of the party to which Miss Whitney belonged, it has the right to introduce any testimony regarding I. W. W. propaganda and example.

QUESTIONS RESTIMED ON PHOSPHORUS BOMBS.

The defense argued at several points today that all of the I. W. W. testimony was irrelevant in view of the fact that Miss Whitney was not a member of that group, but of the Communist party.

Demand was called back to the stand at the opening of this afternoon session. Harris continued questions with regard to phosphorus bombs and Dymond's knowledge of them.

Raid on Restaurant is Led by I. W. W.

ST. ASSOCIATED PRESS. SEVEN WOUNDS. LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—About forty men, reported to have been led by a Russian known locally as an I. W. W. leader, walked into Saugus near here today, compelled the employees of a restaurant there to serve them with breakfast and then left after refusing to pay for their meal. The men then attempted to hold up a truck driver on the highway and compelled him to bring them here, but the driver speeded up his truck and escaped, fleeing a cloud of stones and other missiles.

The occurrences were reported to the sheriff's office here and a posse of officers sent out at once by automobile in an effort to intercept the men. They said at Saugus it was reported that they were on their way to the citadel built to center activities against that industry. Saugus is a railroad town about 45 miles north of Los Angeles.

Major Smith Arrives in S. F. From Fresno

BY UNITED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 13.—Major Albert Smith arrived at the Presidio today at 11:40 a. m. Smith flew from Fresno. He started from Riverside yesterday and intends to fly to Seattle. Major Smith is going to the Sound City to arrange for an elaborate forest patrol of airplanes. Smith said he was uncertain whether he would leave for Seattle today or tomorrow.

In the Political Field

An upsetting of political alignment is seen by Raymond T. Benjamin, Republican state chairman, in the registration figures that have been sent to him by the various county clerks throughout the state.

Referring to the figures as "the shadow of a coming event," Benjamin said that the reports show two things:

(1) Wholesale desertions by the voters from the ranks of the Democratic party and a resulting increase in Republican registrations.

(2) The gradual elimination of the voter who refused to state his or her party politics when registering, which prevents that voter from participating in the primaries of any party.

Some of the county reports on registration received by Benjamin follow:

County	1918	1920	1918	1920
Kern	3,343	1,904	9,556	8,411
Fresno	2,843	1,904	9,556	8,411
Sacramento	20,572	7,111	11,091	2,504
Orange	11,715	4,101	5,417	1,510
San Joaquin	13,507	741	9,028	1,021
Marin	5,615	610	2,406	1,021
San Diego	10,707	8,043	9,028	1,120

A table showing the percentage of Democratic registrations to Republican for the two years follows:

County	1918	1920
Kern	100	100
Fresno	100	100
Sacramento	100	100
Orange	100	100
San Joaquin	100	100
Marin	100	100
San Diego	100	100

HOOPER MEETING IN BERKELEY

BERKELEY, Feb. 13.—Berkeley will formally launch its Hooper for president boom tonight at a mass meeting to be held at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

Presiding at the rally will be Mrs. Mary Roberts Goodridge, member of the Mills College faculty, who will take the place of Bishop Edward Lamb Parsons, who is prevented from filling the role of chairman. In tendering his regrets Bishop Parsons lends warm endorsement of Hooper, describing him as a man worthy to lead America in assuming her new responsibilities.

Speakers tonight will be Dr. David Starr Jordan, chancellor of Stanford, and W. D. Hooper, associated with Hoover in Belgium. Mayor Louis Bartlett will open the meeting.

PALO ALTO ORGANIZES TO BOOST FOR HOOPER

PALO ALTO, Feb. 13.—The organization of a Hoover Republican club "to give active and voluntary expression to the demand for Herbert C. Hoover for President of the United States and to obtain his nomination by the Republican party" was perfected here today by follow-up men of the former food administrator. Men and women of the two leading political parties are represented in the membership of the club.

WOULD NOT STRIKE

The committee advised the company that it did not consider either the signing of an agreement based on the wage conditions which were put in effect at the termination of the strike in July or making an agreement along the same form proposed by the company.

The committee submitted to the company a form of agreement which the company could not entertain. The agreement calling for increases in wages that cannot be made, and demanding further that none but members of the I. W. W. be employed. This latter demand the company will not consider in any way.

EMPLOYEES SAID THEY WOULD NOT STRIKE

"In the meantime many of our employees advised us that they would not strike under any consideration, and requests began to come to the company from these employees that the company deal with them under the 'American plan' that is, through associations formed exclusively of employees. We advised all employees making such requests that the company would deal with them along these lines, and as a consequence many associations have been formed throughout the company's territory."

Today, the central office men, the telephone repairmen and telephone installers in Los Angeles, San Diego, San Francisco, Oakland, Seattle, Portland, Tacoma, Spokane, Sacramento and many other points have formed associations, and have entered into working agreements with the company.

"These working agreements provide that there shall be no strikes or lockouts. They also provide better wage and working conditions than these men have had heretofore, and establish means whereby closer cooperation between the company and its employees can be maintained. ASSOCIATIONS HAVE OVER 1500 MEMBERS."

"These various associations have a membership today of over 1500, and many employees heretofore not members are joining. These associations meet every day."

"The company has never at any time refused to meet with the officers of the I. W. W. on matters pertaining to working conditions of its plant employees who are members of that organization. It has never refused to continue the practice of the past in signing mutual agreements of mutual interest."

"The company cannot meet the demands of the I. W. E. W. and it does not desire to enter into agreements whose form is obsolete. The company is continued that."

JOHNSON PETITIONS WILL BE CIRCULATED

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 13 (By the Associated Press). Completion of the work of circulating petitions to place the name of United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California in the Nebraska Republican presidential preference primary ballot to be voted on April 20, was announced here today by Frank A. Harrison, member of a preliminary organization of a Johnson-for-President Club. Harrison had charge of the circulation of the petitions and said they would be filed with the secretary of state next Monday.

PERISHING CHAMPION SCORES BRYAN'S STAND

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Harry Wilson Walker, one of the volunteer leaders in the campaign to win the Republican presidential nomination for General Pershing, today made public a letter he had written to William Jennings Bryan, in reply to a statement the latter had made regarding the four-year term command of Pershing.

"Having twice kept a Missourian out of the White House I note that you are about to enter upon a third attempt," Walker wrote. "In 1896 it was Richard Bland and in 1912 it was Champ Clark. Now, according to the press, you are starting to prevent the election for President of the greatest of all Missourians, General John Pershing."

"It seems needless to remind you that our great Missourian was a typical western boy—the jaunty, rosy, red-headed, religious surroundings."

"In the same statement you are credited with giving out, you argue that a general is like a doctor in unfitness for statesmanship. The great Frenchman, M. Clemenceau, was a doctor, and yet proved a great statesman."

"Theodore Roosevelt was right when in 1915 he said, in a letter I received from him: 'There is so much good in Mr. Bryan that I hate to be wicked to him, but his present position is not that of a Christian statesman—it is sinful.'"

WASHINGTON G. O. P. ENDORSE POINDEXTER

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 13.—United States Senator Miles Poindexter's candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination was endorsed unanimously here today by the Washington State Republican committee. Bellingham was awarded the 1920 State convention to be held April 27, at which the State's fourteen delegates to the national convention at Chicago will be chosen. Altogether 1087 delegates will be entitled to attend the Bellingham meeting.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—Electrical workers employed by the Southern California Telephone Company here will go out on strike tomorrow, according to George Ringo, business agent of Local 870, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

Grand Duke of Hesse Refugee in Holland

Orchestra Is Heard Across Bay on Wireless Telephone

Uncle Sam patrolled the air last night and for half an hour 5000 persons, members of the American Legion and their friends, in the Oakland Auditorium, listened to the tunes of the orchestra of the Fairmont hotel in San Francisco. The radio-telephone test was pronounced a complete success; it was the first time anything like it had ever been tried on the Pacific Coast.

Through generators, oscillators and reproducing the strains of the orchestra picked up by a big horn were transformed into pulsing radio currents. These were led to the copper filaments of the antenna that swung on the roof of the Fairmont hotel and then across the bay to the strains of music in radio notes. Wires on the roof of the Oakland Auditorium picked them up and down below they were again transformed into mechanical sounds—the reproduced sounds of the orchestra playing in the ball room of the Fairmont hotel in San Francisco.

Nocturnal bedlam of synchronous sounds was abruptly disturbed at 10:30 o'clock by a "BK" signal from the giant naval radio station at Mare Island. Every operator within a 200-mile radius booted upright in his seat and took the message:

AUTO FERRY RATE INCREASES DENIED

"While the Railroad Commission desires to be helpful in furnishing the public with adequate service, it cannot advance the rates of a company which is admittedly doing a profitable business to aid such company in financing further capital expenditures."

This is the language used by the State Railroad Commission today in an order denying to the Rodeo-Vallejo Ferry Company and the Richmond and San Rafael Ferry and Transportation Company authority to increase their rates for transporting autos across the bay of San Francisco. Both companies asked for authority to make a charge of 94 cents per auto as against their present rate of 75 cents setting up as one of the reasons for the change that the federally controlled ferries are charging the higher figure. They also claimed that an increase in the cost of operation justified a raise, that new capital could not be obtained unless there was an assurance of an increase in rates.

The opinion accompanying both orders was written by Commissioner Harvey Loveland. Referring to the Rodeo-Vallejo Company's application he says:

"The financial condition of the company is now very favorable. The net result on the properties devoted to the public service in 1919 approximated 12 per cent. The granting of this application without a betterment of the service would permit net returns estimated between 12 and 20 per cent."

In commenting on the San Rafael decision the order says:

"Testimony shows and the company admits that upon its present assets of $1,250,000, present rates are amply compensatory. The commission has nothing to do with fixing the rates now charged by carriers controlled by the United States railroad administration and is, therefore, not prepared to pass upon the reasonableness of that rate or to consider it a reason for granting an increase."

PARACHUTE FAILS, KILLING WOMAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 13.—Because the silk parachute with which she leaped from the wings of an airplane 2000 feet in the air failed to open, Mrs. Ethel Broadwick, professional "stunt" woman, plunged to her death at Marina aviation field yesterday afternoon. Her death was witnessed by a large crowd.

One of the ropes attaching the "back" parachute to her back entangled its folds and the parachute only partially opened as she leaped into space. It closed again as she gained momentum and in spite of her efforts to open it, the fall was only slightly impeded and Mrs. Broadwick struck upon her feet in the center of the aviation field. Almost every bone in her body was broken. She was taken to the Adler sanitarium for first aid and then to the Central Emergency hospital, where she died upon the operating table.

Chester R. Clarke of the Airway Development Company, who stood with the little aviatrix' husband and watched the flight, was one of the first to see that the airplane parachute had failed to work. He buried his head in his hands and cried: "It won't open! It won't open!" Mrs. Broadwick, professionally known as Ethel Broadwick, kept her presence of mind and attempted to open the folds of the parachute but they were hopelessly entangled.

It was Mrs. Broadwick's second test flight in this city; she was to have given her first public exhibition Sunday. Yesterday's flight was to exhibit the parachute recently invented by her husband, Charles Broadwick, of 1701 Oak street.

Mrs. Broadwick had made more than 3300 successful parachute leaps during her career, more than 600 of them during the San Diego exposition. She was 20 years of age and formerly lived in Los Angeles.

FLU EPIDEMIC FORCES SWIM CLASS TO STOP

All swimming classes at the university have been stopped until influenza conditions insure the students from danger in catching colds. Gymnasium authorities state that the unnecessary changing of body temperatures during the day will tend to weaken the college's resistance from colds.

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy; it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Advertisement.

BISHOP'S BEARD SAVES BARONESS

By the beard of the prophet they shall not perish!

To declare a wise man hundreds and hundreds of years ago.

But "by the beard of the bishop I shall not sink" is a new one, and its origin may be credited to the Baroness Steigberg.

The Baroness Steigberg, wife of a wealthy Shanghai banker, who created a sensation aboard the liner Shinyo Maru, according to the story related yesterday when the vessel returned from the Orient.

Baroness Steigberg created two sensations in fact, the first, the second day out from Yokohama, when the vessel was steaming through a hurricane, and the second was caused when the Baroness appeared at a fancy ball and in the moment of Salome. She explained the storm incident as follows:

"It was nothing. I was walking along the deck when a big wave engulfed me. I was being carried out over the rail and grabbed at Rev. Peter Rey, the Catholic Archbishop at Tokyo. Somehow I missed his arm and my fingers caught in his long beard. I held tight. The water receded and I was safe. Ever since the passengers have teased me about being saved by the beard of the bishop."

Bishop Rey left France for Japan thirty-eight years ago, and this is his first visit to this country. He will go from here to Rome where he will visit the Pope.

Prather Estate Sale

Confirmation Sought

Edson F. Adams as executor of the estate of Thomas Prather, petitioned the probate court today for confirmation of a sale of mining property in Mariposa county to the American Machine Works for $6655.

According to the petition, the property in question was acquired by Adams as executor on an execution sale in an action against the Merced Stone Company. The property includes a one-half interest in 150 acres of land and a large quantity of mining machinery.

Litigation is now pending in the probate court in the Thomas Prather estate in which the bank of Merced is attempting to have Adams removed as executor on the allegations that he has refused to settle the estate.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity. Prevents Food Fermentation. Sour, Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried pepsin, bismuth, soda, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids, and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic, just try the effect of a little bisulphated magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, oxide or milk, but the pure bisulphated magnesia which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn, indigestion or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that provided you take a little bisulphated magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat without aching and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow and moreover, the continued use of the bisulphated magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion—Advertisement.

Body of Mt. Vernon's Cook Found in Bay

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12.—With the skull crushed and bruised about the head, the body of Frank Acosta, Mexican cook employed on the army transport Mount Vernon, was found last night floating in the bay near Pier 29.

Acosta disappeared from the Mount Vernon about two weeks ago, and although only $2.15 was found on the body, friends of the dead man said he was in the habit of carrying large sums.

The police are working on the theory of murder and are attempting to ascertain whether Acosta was thrown from the deck of the Mount Vernon into the bay, or was struck on the head as he was walking along the waterfront and thrown into the water.

MAN HURT WRECKING ARENA

'FLU' CASES PASS PEAK; DECREASING

No increase in the influenza epidemic was indicated in reports of new cases received by the local health department this morning. Although a total of 173 new victims was recorded during the morning, the figure is not accepted by the department officials as an indication of an increase in the disease, as a comparison of the cases reported are believed to have been cases not reported yesterday.

During yesterday the health department office reported 173 new cases until 9 o'clock in the evening, but only 75 new cases were reported, together with the reports of three additional deaths. The total of deaths has now reached 75 and the total number of cases reported to the municipal bureau is 2181.

According to health department officials, the disease in Oakland has passed its high mark, which was reached on Monday with reports received of a total of 300 cases during the day. Further efforts to secure aid from the United States army and navy, and the city of Berkeley, by the city officers and members of Oakland Chapter of the American Red Cross who are supplying nurses.

BERKELEY, Feb. 13.—Because of the influenza Dr. R. L. Leary, university physician, has ordered that the intercollegiate basketball game scheduled for Saturday night, as well as the university meeting set for today, be postponed. The order states that meetings will not be held unless a Harrison gymnasium, unless accommodations for holding the two affairs out of doors can be arranged, both will be postponed.

Graduate Manager L. A. Nichols has announced that negotiations are being made for securing an open air court for the basketball game. In the event that the game will not be played Saturday evening, the plans for the game will be abandoned.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 13.—To date the number of flu cases reported in Alameda for the present epidemic number 531 against 3378 cases in the first outbreak. Deaths from the present sickness total 47 against 443 a year ago. At the health department it was stated this morning that the present status showed a stationary stage, the fluctuations being so slight as to prevent an accurate opinion whether the flu was on the wane or waxing stronger, but the general indications are that the peak has been reached.

FLU CASES TOTAL 1128

BERKELEY, Feb. 13.—Berkeley's influenza cases reached a total of 1128 today when 83 new cases were reported for yesterday and this morning. New cases on Wednesday totaled 55. But one death from influenza in the past 24 hours is reported. Mrs. Katherine J. Jost, 65 years old, residing at 2019 Emerson street, died yesterday.

IRVINGTON, Feb. 13.—The Irvington grammar school was closed Tuesday morning on account of an epidemic of measles and mumps with some influenza cases in the school. On Monday the school opened with forty pupils absent on account of sickness with one or the other of the diseases.

U. C. Campanile Now Source of Revenue

BERKELEY, Feb. 13.—The University of California Campanile has resolved itself into a source of revenue for the state authorities, for with the increasing tax on the property of the state, the university has become a source of revenue for the state. The university has been visited by the campus and paying the ten cent fare to ride to the top of the bell tower. Last Sunday more than 1900 persons were taken up in the car, and the amount of revenue since last year was received. On Sundays the receipts average about $30.

Capt. Paul Fretz of Mare Island Retired

Fretz, former outside superintendent of the Mare Island navy yard, appeared before a medical examining board at the navy yard Thursday and was recommended for retirement. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bost. Berkeley. Marries Charles E. Torp, Suisun.

BERKELEY, Feb. 13.—Miss Verla W. Bost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bost of Berkeley, became the bride yesterday morning of Charles E. Torp, well-known young banker of Suisun.

Mrs. Torp is a leader in activities in the Baptist church, being president of the Baptist Young People's Association of the Sacramento Valley. Formerly she made her home in Sacramento and of late she has resided in Suisun, where she held a business position, and where her romance with Torp had its inception. Torp comes from a prominent Suisun family and holds the position of assistant cashier of the Bank of Suisun. During the war he served with the 24th Machine Gun Battalion.

Mr. and Mrs. Torp will make their home in Suisun, where an attractive residence awaits them.

LABOR LEADERS' PLAN ATTACKED

UTICA, N. Y., Feb. 13 (By the Associated Press).—Charges that the American Federation of Labor to obtain the election of a congress and a president favorable to its policies executed a sinister movement of a small number of labor leaders who have known power in the contributions they have levied upon labor, to set up a government within a government.

The charges were made here tonight by United States Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington, in an address before the U. S. Republican club.

The farmers and laboring men of America," he asserted, "have in every crisis been the great bulwark of our institutions, and they will not follow the mistaken leadership which would place the government under the despotic control of government within a government."

This government within a government is not ruled by labor, but is an autocracy of a few leaders who would not only impose their will upon labor, but would also impose their will upon the rest of the people of the United States. It is as autocratic as the "invisible government" of which the people protest in 1917.

"There is no question of the right of the American Federation of Labor to secure control of congress and of the president, but the question is, if it can do so in accordance with the proclamation it has just issued. It will be an evil for the United States and most of all for the people of the United States, if the government is placed in the hands of a few labor leaders, who will not follow the mistaken leadership which would place the government under the despotic control of government within a government."

INSANITY IS DEFENSE IN MURDER CASE

The alleged insanity of immediate relatives will be a strong feature in the attempt of William E. Stewart, charged with the murder of his wife, to establish proof of temporary insanity as a defense in his trial before Judge Lincoln S. Churchill.

Stewart's mother used in the Napa State hospital for the insane, and a brother also died there, according to the declaration today of Attorney Peter J. Crosby for the defense, who announced he would prove these facts from the records of the institution, as well as presenting other evidences of Stewart's alleged unbalanced mentality.

Deputy District Attorney Frank Shay, in charge of the prosecution, declares he is prepared for such a contention and that he will show that Stewart knew right from wrong when he committed the act, which he says is the legal test of insanity.

Dr. J. W. Robertson, alienist who testifies for the prosecution, it is said, has examined and carefully observed the defendant and will testify, it is understood, that he is perfectly sane.

The vigorous battle over the selection of a jury continued today, with the prospect that the necessary twelve will be secured before nightfall. Already twelve prospective jurors have been excused by consent, as they declared they would not accept a plea of temporary insanity, said they did not believe in the insanity defense, or otherwise were disqualified.

At noon today the prosecution had peremptorily excused five and the defense eleven. The prosecution is entitled to ten and the defense to twenty peremptory challenges. It is said, however, that probably not more than two or three more will be exercised.

Stewart shot his wife several months ago when she met her on the streets of Emeryville in company with another man, it is charged. She died several weeks later. Stewart had filed a divorce action two days before the shooting, charging infidelity. They had been separated some time.

COUNCIL FAILS TO ORDER PAGE 'AD'

Efforts of the Oakland Police Board to obtain municipal appropriation of $250 for the Pacific coast magazine of the lodge were lost this morning when the city council voted the appropriation resolution down.

When the question was brought before the council Commissioner W. H. Edwards submitted a communication opposing the appropriation in view of "financial and other complications." The resolution appropriating the sum from the entertainment fund was put to a vote and lost with the opposition votes of Commissioners Edwards and Frederick Soderberg.

Members of the Links lodge requested of Public Works Director Edwards that the city council should appropriate the sum of $250 for the Pacific coast magazine, which is to be dedicated to the city of Oakland.

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company today asked the city council for action on the lease entered into by the company with the Parr Terminal company for a portion of the terminal building.

The sub-lease was submitted to the council for approval several days ago and was referred to City Attorney H. L. Hagan and Commissioner of Public Works Frederick Soderberg. The appeal of the telephone company was also referred to Soderberg.

Acting as a board of trustees of the pension fund, the council this morning granted temporary retirement to Patrolman William T. Johnson, who will be placed on the temporary list until he recovers from an illness contracted recently.

HINDU ASCITIZEN DECISION WAITED

The most question as to whether or not a Hindu is entitled to citizenship in the United States was decided by Superior Judge T. W. Harris in the application of Boor Singh, a tall, broad-shouldered East Indian of rather intellectual appearance.

Judge Harris, in his decision, stated that Boor Singh, who is a Hindu, is not entitled to citizenship, but that he is entitled to naturalization.

The decision was based on the fact that Boor Singh is a Hindu, and that the Hindu religion is not a religion of the United States.

HOUSEWIVES TO VOTE ON STATE LEAGUE

Presidents of Oakland, Berkeley, San Francisco Housewives' Leagues meeting in San Francisco this morning decided to put the entire issue of the organization of a State Housewives' League up to their members and abide by the decision of the local bodies.

Leona W. Bartlett and Mrs. Robert E. Dean withdrew from the organization convention Tuesday afternoon in Oakland, refusing participation in what they declared was "an illegal method of voting."

"We are not objecting to the organization of a State Federation," declared Mrs. Grasser, following the conference today, "nor do we object to the officers who were elected. What we dislike are the methods by which the organization was brought about, and we will not attend an adjourned meeting and carry out the objects of a State organization, even though the same constitution with amendments is adopted and we like the plan by which one of us was elected to the office of president."

Parliamentarians agree that the Tuesday meeting was illegal. We are not seeking of our organizations, and the principle involved."

Berkeley Housewives' League this afternoon will take action on the matter of the State organization. Mrs. Bartlett previous to the meeting expressed herself as confident that the organization would not enter into the matter of the State organization.

MALADY PUZZLE; SLEEP SYMPTOM

LONDON, Feb. 12.—Light or nine cases of what appears to be a new phase of the deadly "sleeping sickness" are puzzling the London hospital doctors.

The disease to which the name, encephalitis lethargica has been given, presents many of the symptoms of the African sleeping sickness, but so far the trypanosome hitherto thought to be responsible for the sleeping sickness common to the Congo natives has not been found in the blood of patients at the hospital.

A representative medical committee is investigating the new disease. The house surgeon states it is too early to make a definite statement. So far no common factor save the overpowering desire to sleep has been found in cases.

It has been possible to trace the origin of each. There is said to be no cause for alarm as to the possible spread of the disease.

GABY DESLYS BURIED WITH KING'S PEARLS

PARIS, Feb. 12.—Clad in a simple white gown and with the body reposing upon a bed of white roses, Gaby Deslys, the famous French dancer who died on Wednesday, was quietly buried today.

Deslys is reported to have left a fortune of more than 12,000,000 francs, more than half of it being in jewels. The magnificent string of pearls given her by former King Emmanuel of Portugal were buried with Miss Deslys.

Today Is Friday the Thirteenth Many Pitfalls Menace Unwary

Logic and common sense which do not. This author shudders lest you do! This way have we taken to do what we may to guide you on your dangerous course through the pitfalls of Friday the Thirteenth, again. To beware of the pitfalls and the dry weather means that the salt will be easy to spill and, but let's not attempt to put rhyme or reason to the witches' brew on the awful day.

So mark ye well thy ways and see to it that thy boot-toes turn themselves outward from the side of thy bed as they are deposited to the floor before thine eyes do close.

We'll be a lot for thy bed to be played hard by to the wall of thy bedroom lest perchance, by some evil misarrangement of thy plans, on arising you should get thyself up into a corner.

Look well to thine hand but beware lest you try to steady with the sword hilt of a bootlegger. The application of seasoning to a omelet of breakfast, look carefully to that let the salt be split to the cover of thy board. This a fearful thing today.

On the pathways that must be yours on the morrow, thine eyes, let them be widely opened, lest the black cat indeed a sore nail to our forefathers do cross thy path. It were of small avail for to continue on thy way if devils forbid it, thou shouldst do so.

Dissonance come ye to the washer of windows, and others of wretched crafts where their labors at the top of inclined ladders do they perform. He is said to be in league with the evil spirits so far as to incline his ladder further out upon the footpaths alongside of our roadways to catch the unwary ones that they will walk under the ladder. ## Tiny Plane Success; Cost is Only $600

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12.—A midsize airplane that weighs but 150 pounds and is capable of carrying one passenger who weighs as much as the plane, was given a successful tryout yesterday afternoon at the Redwood Aviation Field near Palo Alto. Chester F. Slinger, the designer, says the midsize planes can be built for $600. On the first flight it was piloted by Lynn E. McLeary of the school. The wing spread is but twenty-two feet and the machine is of monoplane type. The power is derived from a nine-horsepower two-cylinder motorcycle engine.

DO AS WELL AS TALK.

Truly necessity mothers invention and magnates many reforms. It has been said that if England had not in a cruel mood of long ago prohibited the wearing of wool in Ireland the great Irish linen industry would not have been developed. In the late war England and France, in order to increase their production with a greatly crippled man power, substituted on a large scale machines for hand work. They will keep these machines and invent many improvements no doubt, thus raising both the quantity and quality of their products and lowering the cost.

When many of the ordinary articles of food were exhausted or impossible to obtain, substitutes were introduced. In this manner vegetable oils came to occupy an amazingly large place in the world's food resources. New articles of food have been produced from them and the economic effect upon different areas of the earth may be very significant.

Thus the famine in fats wrought one of the great marvels of the last quarter century, for the development of the vegetable oil industry is a marvel. In 1914 this country imported 58,000-000 pounds of coconut oil; in 1917 it bought 163,000,000 and last year almost as much. Between 1914 and 1918 imports of copra rose from 30,000,000 to 267,000,000 pounds; peanut oil from 7,000,000 to 27,000,000 and soy bean oil from 13-000,000 to 265,000,000.

All of these vegetable fats do not enter into food products. Soap and cosmetics and drugs take a fairly large portion. But during the war the great bulk was consumed by people who were denied animal fats in sufficient quantity or who had to have a cheap substitute for the foods they had been accustomed to. Cotton seed oil has come to face active and strong competition and in future it ought to be available at a lower price.

Extraction of beet sugar broke the grip the cane sugar men at one time thought they had on the world. Extraction of syrups and saccharine and their distribution in convenient and cheap form would now relieve the country from the apparently hopeless grip of both beet and cane sugar producers and manufacturers.

The lesson to be drawn from these facts is to increase our resources, to produce more and in greater variety. The farmer, the manufacturer, the individual householder, ought to plan, if possible, so that he will not be at the mercy of any one power or interest or person. Keep something in reserve. Have something to fall back on in time of pressure from without. If it is only in the case of the individual, a savings account with a bank may bridge a crisis.

Economy, thrift, planning ahead, these virtues are forced upon us in great emergencies such as the war. Why forget them as soon as the lash of necessity no longer falls? Slavery to the habits of extravagance and pride is a powerful factor in the present cost of living. Individuals might duplicate on a small scale the work of great governments in solving the food problem. Try to comprehend the fact that you and every other citizen has a certain responsibility for present conditions.

PREVENT FIRE.

On Sunday night a fire destroyed an apartment house in San Francisco. One woman was burned to death and thirty other persons injured, while the lives of several score others were menaced. Yesterday a dangerous fire started in Oakland and destroyed considerable property. Two weeks ago a fire in Alameda destroyed some forty buildings, wiping out two city blocks.

These are incidents with which the people of the Eastbay district are familiar. Here are other facts. The actuarial bureau of the National Board of Fire Underwriters has just finished its careful compilation and classifying of statistics of fire losses for 1918. The property loss was $282-103,191, an increase of $51,475,661 over the loss of 1917. Lives lost in fires during 1918 totaled approximately 15,000. The fires "strictly preventable" caused a loss of $65,512,500, "partly preventable" $129,254,697, a total of $195-067,173.

If the student of social conditions should analyze the tables of losses and their causes he might arrive at some interesting conclusions. He might make some fairly accurate deductions as to the habits of the American people. Carelessness certainly would be plainly reflected.

Not all the fire losses were reported to the Board of Fire Underwriters. Adding the estimate of unreported losses to the above figures, fire took from the country's material and human resources $350,000,000 and 15,000 people in a single year. This should be an eloquent exhortation for precaution in preventing fire, to eliminating fire risks. Everyone should resolve to do his utmost to stop the terrible waste.

WITH WISHES FOR SUCCESS.

An old scandal is being aired in San Francisco, the scandal of bail bond brokers and their control and manipulation of the police courts.
Testimony has been presented showing the sinister influence of the McDonough brothers, until recently in the sideline business of saloon operation near the Hall of Justice over certain of the police judges and with members of the police department. This evidence has been formally placed before the San Francisco County grand jury.

Those acquainted with the methods of the police courts, the police department and, until recently at least, the district attorney's office, and the influence of the bail bond brokers in the municipal politics and government of the city, are not surprised at the charges that have been made. They know that all that has been said, even by the lawyer under prison sentence for a felony crime, is true and much more. They have seen the machinery in operation for years and back in their minds the only question has been, "when will it be stopped?"

And those acquainted with conditions across the bay do not hope for the end of the evil now.
They know the political pressure that will be exerted on the grand jury and the courts to quash
the charges and save the actors in the scandal from punishment. Already they see the forces in action in defense of some of the police judges and their friends, the McDonoughs.

But still there is some hope: the faint prospect that the grand jury will be courageous and honest enough to make the case against the offenders so clear that it cannot be whitewashed. Other cities hope San Francisco will succeed in freeing herself of the long standing disgrace, that there will be enough honest men in the courts, in the city government and among the lawyers of the city, who are aware of the condition that exists, to break the combination that protects criminals
and betrays the public.

It would be a lesson to other cities. It would show others the urgency of eliminating and influence avoiding the source and the instrument of corruption which the bail bond broker on friendly terms with the police and the courts constitutes.

WEST DISREGARDED.

John Barton Payne, of Illinois, at present chairman of the United States Shipping Board, has been selected by President Wilson to succeed Hon. Franklin K. Lane of California as Secretary of the Interior. Colonel Payne possesses acknowledged ability as a lawyer and administrator of large affairs. Born a poor boy he has earned the complimentary title of "a self-made man." In the light of available Democrats for the position he was probably as good a selection as the President could have made.

But there was another candidate for the cabinet position of proven ability and valuable experience. He is Mr. Alexander Vogelsang of California, first assistant Secretary of the Department of Agriculture. He has been in the department for three years. Californians hoped that Mr. Vogelsang or some other able citizen of this State would be named as Mr. Lane's successor.

President Wilson was not unaware of this wish and hope. But he ignored it. No man of the West is now in the President's cabinet.

GREAT WAR TALES UNTOLD.

Publishers and magazine editors are saying that war stories are dead. Writers who have sold pages of the struggle have received word that their being held on the chance that there will be a revival of interest and that what the public wants right now, is humor or action outside of the war zone and dressed in "fables."

And yet almost any day now there may come a war story that will set the world on ears. The romantically outlined among us cannot disourage an imagination that would wander in the old fields. Will some one tell us what became of Lord Kitchener, how Czar Nicholas met his death, and where is the Cyclops, its crew and its distinguished passenger Consul-General Gonsoull.

To those who would accept the logical explanation there are answers to all of these unsolved mysteries. The trouble is, there are too many of them. Of the Czar's death there are a dozen conflicting official reports. No man has been found who saw Kitchener on the Hampshire before it was sunk and there is no one who has said, of his own knowledge, that Kitchener was drowned. There are a hundred theories as to the course the Cy-clops took on its tragic course to the port of missing ships.

Because these mysteries have so strong an appeal to the imaginative they will not be among the war stories that are dead. They will be themes about many an American legionnaire in the days when the boys of today are honored and glorified veterans and as they grow older they will gain in romance.

They are of the stuff of which great poems are written.

NOTES and COMMENT

These game laws are serious everywhere. We often see in California how a man who takes a quail or a fish out of season gets seven recessing than one who runs over another with an automobile, or commits a deadly assault, but here is a South Carolina instance where a well-intentioned person has been fined $10 for sending the President of the United States a wild turkey. The fine was imposed in accordance with a law which makes it a misdemeanor to send wild turkeys out of the State,
the President not being excepted.

The story of Provincetown contains an element of human interest.
For two hundred years, while the rest of the world was wet, it remained dry, virtuously refusing to issue a license to sell liquor; but as soon as the rest of the country went dry, it became wet, voting such license. This will not start anybody, of course, but it is an interesting illustration of human nature.

The former crown prince continues to be fantastic. His proposal to deliver himself up to the allies for trial, in vicarious atonement for the sins of all Germany, is nothing less. He still seems to think with his chin.

Announcement is made of a southern mercantile combine with a capital of three-quarters of a billion.
Remembering how the Standard Oil "suffered" once upon a time, it may be wondered how this new venture has managed to get away with it.

Attorney-General Palmer is reassuring the public with the declaration that the impending strike of the American railroad men will be illegal.
If the roads shall be tied up it may be interesting to know that the action is against the law, but that will not entirely compensate the untoward experiences that will result.

An embarrassment recently occurred at Fresno. As a safeguard from the flu a municipal order was promulgated forbidding assemblages.
Five pastors ignored it, and held service. They were arrested. This may raise ethical questions, but may also suggest that such unpleasant consequences could have been avoided by simply obeying the law.

National suffrage seems to be in peril. The ratification of seven more States is needed, and only ten remain to take action. The Southwestern amendment of the proposition is the only one that is opposed to the suffrage amendment, and both attitudes are due to the colored population. In the one case there was a purpose to keep liquor away from the negro, and in the other the effect of enfranchising negro women is feared.

The innovation of employing women in clubs has finally produced a result that was considerably predicted. A clubman has kissed one of his members. The clubman has been expelled. The club in which this occurred is not located in this city.

Denaturalized alcohol hereafter is to be put up in three-cornered bottles with an illuminated label of gold and crossbones. Those who suffer from that left-over thirst will not have a valid excuse in the explanation that they grabbed the wrong bottle.

Dr. Youx who has created something of a sensation by talking for publication of the President's illness, declares that from the beginning the president had nothing to conceal.
As the program must be published in the connection into "concealed" they had naught to "conceal." It is the public doesn't remember that it was advised as to the nature of the President's indisposition until now, and it is indifferently advised now.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

A report comes to the Crockett of the city of Martinez, the coun-of this, or because of an oversight on the part of somebody in authority,

HEALTH and HADDINESS

Why Some Persons Have a Really Deadly Fear of Cats

By DR. LEONARD K. HIRSHBERG,
A. B., M. A., M. D.
(Johns Hopkins University)

To say that science has discovered why some persons fear cats and know of their presence without sight or sound of them is not to be taken too literally, notwithstanding the fact that women have been known almost to choke with a cat in the presence. In such cases the trouble is due to a kind of asthma, called cat asthma, which appears to be caused by particles of the skin or hair shed by the animal, the victim seeming to be "anaphylactic," or peculiarly sensitive to such things.

Horse asthma and dog asthma are of similar types, which may be included under the general term epidermal asthma.

The government granted a license to prepare treatment solutions, representing respectively the proteins of horse dander, cat and dog hair, and requested that these products be designated as "animal epidermal extracts."

Asthmatic attacks or choking coughs of a bronchial nature also may be due to certain foods, bacteria, inhalation and dusts from plants.

When unseen things induce unreasonable fears or presentations in sensitive individuals tests can be made to discover which is guilty, the protein of the dandruff and hair of such domestic animals as the horse, cat or dog, or those of the feathers of chickens or geese.

After your doctor has found the particular kind of animal or vegetable matter responsible he injects
a few drops every five to seven days of the particular protein diluted 10-000 times and more.

Of the thirty-eight patients who were sensitive to and treated with the cat dandruff proteins, 63 per cent were relieved of asthma, 10 per cent have had little treatment to warrant a prognosis, and 20 per cent were relieved by vaccines or by omitting foods to which they were sensitive. In the remaining 7 per cent of the group treatment was a failure.

Of the thirty patients who were sensitive to the cereal grains, 74 per cent were cured by the omission of these from the diet, and 7 per cent were relieved by vaccines; of the 26 per cent who were not relieved by the omission of cereals there was no diet in 16 per cent there was no diet that cereals played any part in the cause of asthma, but the omission of cereals may account for these positive skin tests.

Of the thirty-three patients who gave positive skin tests to other foods, 59 per cent were relieved by the omission of these from the diet, 30 per cent more were relieved of asthma, but as the latter were also sensitive to other proteins which were also omitted from the diet at the same time, it is difficult to give credit to any special protein. The remaining 20 per cent were not relieved of asthma, but the presence of eczema and urticaria and an acquired distaste for certain foods probably explains the idiosyncrasy.

Berkeley Council Tries to Enlist Oakland in Fight To Shut Out Rail Shops

Consternation fell upon Claremont residents when after breakfast this morning they learned that the San Francisco-Sacramento Railway Company, formerly the Antioch & Eastern Railway, had plans to erect shops and put in extensive yards in the heart of the residential district between Claremont, Berkeley and Rockridge, Oakland, along the right of way.

General H. A. Greene and Mrs. Greene recruited an indignant army of a half score property owners and took their trouble before the Berkeley Council. Lieutenant-Governor C. C. Young and Charles Keeler, Berkeley poet and lecturer, bore the tidings to the Oakland City Council. Claremont and Rockridge residents started war on the proposition immediately.

The Berkeley Council, on the petition of the society leaders, adopted a resolution asking the co-operation of the Oakland Commissioners in prohibiting the building.

"Whereas, The two districts are primarily residential and are reckoned among the most beautiful of each of the two cities; and

"Whereas, In the case of two cities adjoining, as Oakland and Berkeley, any action of this kind is of mutual interest, now we, the City Council of Berkeley request your honorable body to co-operate in helping to shut out anything so helping a community as the railroad shops and yards," was the message that Lieutenant-Governor Young and Poet Keeler bore from the Berkeley Council to the Oakland Council.

Among those who were summoned from the breakfast tables to make public protest were: General and Mrs. Greene, 158 Hilderet road; Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Dukes, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Dennis, Mrs. George Gray, Mrs. Robert Armstrong, Mrs. C. W. Shealey, Mrs. M. J. Mahony and others.

The railroad company was represented at the hearing in Oakland by H. A. Mitchell, president of the company, and Attorney Charles E. Snook. No objection would be made, the proposition was said, to present temporary camp on the site.

After a long hearing the issue was laid over for action until Thursday, February 26, and arrangements made for an inspection of the site by members of the city council, members of the Berkeley city council officials of the railroad company and the protesters.

U. C. Students Will Total 18,000 in 1929, Is Report

BERKELEY, Feb. 13.—Prediction of 18,000 students for the University of California in 1929 is made by Professor R. M. Woods, Berkeley examiner, as part of the annual report of activities of the state institution sent to Governor William D. Stephens.

The report is the last of twenty annual documents sent to the chief executive of the state by Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, now president emeritus of the university. In it is contained a history of the university's activities for the last year as well as recommendations for future development.

Covering a period from July 1, 1918, to July 15, 1919, Dr. Wheeler's report gives a summary of the reports of the various departments, disclosing a marked expansion in activities during the last year. Dr. Woods' prediction of an 18,000 enrollment nine years hence he bases on the steady growth of the institution during the last ten years.

Greater responsibility on the part of the university over living conditions for women is urged by Miss Lucy Stebbins, dean of women, in her report to the president. Her plea for dormitories for women is seconded in an appeal from Professor Thomas M. Putnam, dean of the lower division, for similar buildings for all students on the campus. The need for dormitories is especially urgent for freshmen, Professor Putnam declares.

Service to the entire people of the state of California has been the dominant keynote of the activities of the extension division, according to the report of its director, Professor Leon J. Richardson. More than 112,208 persons were reached in various ways by the various branches of the division, with a total of 7388 receiving class instruction during the twelve months just passed.

$10,000 Damages Suit Brought for Arrest

Charging that he was subjected to false arrest and kept in jail for six hours on a baseless accusation, Charles H. Darlington has asked for $10,000 damages from C. H. Blake in a suit filed today by his attorney, Henry A. Davis.

The complaint says Darlington was arrested October 26 last on a warrant secured by Blake charging him with grand larceny in the theft of the other's automobile. He says he put up $2000 bail and that Judge Mortimer Smith dismissed the charge.

Speeding Autoists Are Fined by Judge

Police Judge Robert Edgar of Berkeley took the place of Judge George Samuels on the bench of police court No. 2 this morning and will continue to fill it during Judge Samuels' absence from the city.

Several speeders were fined $10 by Judge Edgar for exceeding the limit during the last year. Dr. Woods' prediction of an 18,000 enrollment nine years hence he bases

The complaint declares the agreement was made with Mrs. Moschenross and her former husband, now dead, but that after long neglect to provide her with the necessities of life she was forced to leave the house, since when Moschenross and his wife have rented it to F. A. Radke.

FRATS LOOK ASKANCE AT J. T. NOURSE

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Feb. 13.—The fraternity question has once more become a point of issue between the administration and students of Stanford through the appointment of Judge John T. Nourse of San Francisco to the post of trustee.

That the appointment of Judge Nourse will not meet with universal approval among students and alumni is readily apparent from the hostile and hostile men and women, because of his stand on the fraternity question was voted last night by Landis O. Weaver, editor of the Daily Palo Alto, through the editorial columns of that paper. Judge Nourse has recently been quoted in a published article as saying that fraternities were all wrong and ought to be abolished.

Fraternity men and women say they at least had a right to expect that a man who was open to conviction on the fraternity question would be appointed.

Liquor Referendum Urged by Canadians

REGINA, Sask., Feb. 13.—The first move to effect the prohibition setback, which became effective January 1, when war restrictions were lifted by the Dominion government, has been taken by the Saskatchewan Social Service Council. Members of the provincial legislature are being urged to submit to a referendum the question of prohibiting the importation of wines and whisky.

One Man Street Cars Are To Be Used in Oakland

The one-man street car, the enter-at-the-front safety design that has been tried out with success in certain cities of the east, is coming to Oakland.

W. R. Alberger, vice-president and general manager of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railroad Company, is on his way east to purchase twenty-five of the new safety one-man cars and to urge their completion and delivery as soon as possible. The car provides for an entrance at the front and is equipped with a number of safety devices that are regarded as revolutionary in street car construction.

Alberger will visit a number of the larger cities in the east and while there will study service conditions with a view of recommending other innovations for Oakland.

Rich Woman in Pajamas Is Taken by Police After Chase

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—Mrs. Joseph L. Spitz, said to be a wealthy tourist from Cleveland, O., is held in the county jail here today on a charge of having passed $12,000 worth of bogus checks in the Ohio city. She was arrested with a man given the name of Joseph H. Barker, following a spectacular automobile chase at dawn today in the fashionable district of Hollywood.

A warrant from Cleveland for Mrs. Spitz' arrest arrived early today and set the detectives hustening to the hotel where she was staying.

Briton Would Remedy King's Silence on U. S.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—Horatio W. Bottomley, member of the House of Commons from South Hackney and editor of "John Bull," which periodical has been actively critical of the United States recently, offered in the House today an amendment to the King's speech in which the member deals with the relations between Great Britain and the United States. Bottomley's amendment expresses regret that while in His Majesty's speech there is an assurance of the excellent relations which exist with all our allies no mention is made of the United States and no indication is given of the present condition of the negotiations with that power, either in relation to the peace treaty or the loan of $100,000,000, by which such treaty is governed, and which according to his majesty's gracious speech at the opening of the present parliament constitutes the only hope of saving mankind from a recurrence of the scourge of war.

San Jose Block Is Placed Upon Market

SAN JOSE, Feb. 13.—It was admitted today that a contract for the sale of the Knoll block, situated at the corner of First and Santa Clara streets and erected in 1910, is now in the hands of a local real estate firm, but it was denied that a syndicate has purchased the property with the intention of erecting a ten-story hotel. A half dozen reports concerning the sale of the property have been in circulation during the past few days and in practically all of them it was stated that the property offered for sale for $100,000.

Another important sale is the Smoot building on West Santa Clara street. J. R. Koehler has sold the property, according to good authority, to E. J. Gilger, prominent local real estate operator, for $50,000. Gilger is said to be one of a syndicate of men who purchased the building.

Copley, thieves entered a room in the Tonopah rooming house at 145 North Market street sometime between 7 o'clock yesterday morning and 5 o'clock last night, according to a report made by Copley to the police. ## Coal Dear in Chile; Production Cost Low

SAN PEDRO DE LA VILLA, Feb. 13.—Coal is dear in Chile at about $27 a ton, though the cost of its production is said to be about $3 a ton at the mine. The high price is attributed here to the lack of local coal.

Three of the four big coal companies which operate in the region of the city are in Arauco province have been combined. The combined production of the three companies is 9,000,000 tons a year, while the country needs 2,000,000 tons. The coal dealers of Chile are said here to be in a bad way because of the high price.

ORIENTALS OPPOSED

SAN JOSE, Feb. 13.—The Orientalists of the city are opposed to the proposed building of a new Oriental hotel in the city.

ALEXIS SHEFFOFF DIES FROM 'FLU'

Inspector Alexis Sheffoff, who was for six years a member of the Oakland police department, died at 3 o'clock this morning after a week's struggle with influenza. Although it was realized that his illness was serious, his death was a shock.

For several days the Sheffoff family had been unable to obtain a nurse and policeman and inspectors had been acting in that capacity. Chief J. W. Lynch stated this morning that he had been out to the Sheffoff home at 75 Fifty-eighth street, late last night and at that time a nurse had just been secured. Shortly after midnight the inspector became suddenly ill and died soon thereafter.

He leaves a wife and two children, a boy 14 years old and a girl 8 years old.

Sheffoff was 36 years old and became a member of the Oakland police department January 1, 1914.

He was a member of the Brooklyn Lodge of Masons, and the funeral arrangements will be announced later by the lodge.

Sheffoff was known to the entire department as a student. He brought to his work of running down criminals the advantage of an exceptional education in European universities, and in addition to this his studies embraced every detail of all subjects which might have even a remote bearing upon his chosen career.

He was born in Charkoff, Russia, in 1884, and obtained his university education in French and Russian schools. While a student he became affiliated with the Russian radicals and was forced to leave Russia owing to the activities of the secret police of the Czar. In the eleven years he spent in America he learned to speak the English language without a noticeable accent and as fluently as a born American.

He possessed the Russian gift for languages and was master of several. His latest accomplishment, and one of the most difficult ever accomplished by a linguist, was a complete mastery of the Chinese language. His work in the inspector's bureau of the Oakland police department brought him into contact with many Chinese and he determined to acquire the language in order to facilitate his work among the Chinese.

Several years ago Sheffoff conceived an ambition to become an attorney. He straightway took up the study of law and kept at it until he had been admitted to the bar of this state.

With these varied accomplishments Sheffoff was of peculiar value to any police department.

"Sheffoff was an exceptionally brilliant man," said Chief Lynch this morning, "and his loss will be a distinct blow to the department. He was a dependable man in every sense of the word. Besides this, he was one of the 'squares' shooters I ever knew, in the department or out of it."

Theft of Cleaner Wrecks Small Business of Widow

Because a boy acted like a boy and stopped for a while to "play with the fellows," Mrs. Emma Eckstein, 2512 Thirteenth street, has found the stock in trade of a small business she had built up wiped out in a moment. She had purchased a vacuum cleaner on a $45 contract, and had paid all but $8 and was counting the days until the machine would have paid for itself and started to bring in a small profit. When one works out by the day and has three children to bring up anything extra is welcome, just as any extra expense, like the purchasing of the cleaner, means harder work and sacrifice.

It was while her son was bringing home the cleaner from a residence where it had been rented out that he saw the boys at play at Sausal Creek and Hopkins street. He leaned the cleaner against a big oak tree and joined the game.

After a while, when the boy decided it was time to "mosey on to the ward home," he looked for the cleaner and found it was gone. The story is told so that the person who picked it up may know to whom it belongs and have the added pleasure of knowing that its return to Mrs. Eckstein will mean the resumption of a little business enterprise that has been adding her in the care of her family. She is a widow and the children are 14, 12 and 8 years of age.

Fire in Oakland is Put Out by Piedmont

PIEDMONT, Feb. 13.—Damage to the extent of $50 was caused by a roof fire at the home of N. D. Hawley, 74 Kingston avenue, Oakland, yesterday afternoon, which was quickly extinguished by the Piedmont fire department. Although the house is in Oakland, the call was sent to Piedmont. The line between the two cities runs along the corner of Kingston avenue.

It is estimated that nearly ten per cent of the Indians of the United States are sufferers with tuberculosis.

TERMINALS UP TO CONFERENCE

Railroad conferences at which will be decided the fates of the joint terminal at Oakland mole and the joint ticket office in various bay cities are being held by officials of the Southern Pacific, Western Pacific and Santa Fe. It is agreed that if no decision or satisfactory arrangement have been made by March 1, the day set for the return of the railroad to private ownership, the present plan will obtain pending the settlement. It is also considered a possibility that an agreement will be reached to continue indefinitely the present plan.

After March 1, the officials say, no radical changes in railroading are expected. The companies once again will go out after business and some increases in facilities are looked for.

Gimme the ox-cart still!
I jest don't need the lightnin'
Per to make my pulses thill;
Summer or Snow,
I kin take it slow—
Gimme the ox-cart still!
I reckon I'm jest ol'-fashioned,
An' I never will fill the bill;
But here's my song:
For a life that's long,
Gimme the ox-cart still!
"We have all played the fool," Declared the ex-crown prince, "I see it now." "How?" "We had the whole world to pick a fight with."
"Well?" "And look at the crowd
we picked out!"

MY HEART and MY HUSBAND

by ADELE GARRISON

FURTHER REVELATIONS OF A WIFE.

What Alfred Durkee Proposed and Why Dicky Hesitated.

Dicky and Alfred Durkee spent a long, busy afternoon over the manuscript of the novel which Mr. Durkee wished Dicky to illustrate. With an abundant allowance of pipe tobacco and cigars, with their feet slaved to the sun parlor windows, while their bodies rested luxuriously upon the base of their spines in the easy veranda chairs, they read and debated with all the gusto of men.

I should have liked nothing better than the opportunity of sitting quietly in a corner while the reading and the discussion went on. It would have been a rare treat to me—indeed, I always have the sitting-at-the-feet-of-Gamaliel spirit when I see Dicky absorbed in his profession—but the inevitable laws of courteous hospitality decreed otherwise.

For little Mrs. Durkee was not only patently bored by the discussion, but I knew from experience that her presence had the same effect upon the two men as that of a noisy, noisy, little canary. There were times when they loved to have her with them, but not when they wished to concentrate their minds upon a subject.

"I say, Madge," Alfred Durkee looked up from the third page of the manuscript, which had been punctuated by his mother's ingenuous comments upon a wide variety of topics, "can't you lead the matter gently up to your brother-in-law and turn her loose on clothes or something like that while I'm reading this? Goodness knows I love and revere her, but I always prefer worshipping her from afar when I've any business on hand."

"You needn't think I care anything about your horrid old mother," his mother declared with affected petulance, but real good nature, rising with alacrity and shaking out her fluffy apron. "It's dull as ditch water. I never could hear that W— anyway. Don't like his photograph. He looks too la-de-da for anything. Come along, Madge, I'm dying to talk clothes. I haven't had anything new for ages, and I'm planning how to fix over my old ones. Maybe we can swap."

The laughter of our men followed us up the stairs when Mrs. Durkee talks her childish nonsense. She is irresistible in her appeal to the risibles—and made my friend toss her head.

"Conceited thing," she muttered. "Think their old authors and manuscripts are the only things in the world. They'll chuckle to themselves about our gabbling over dresses, yet how would they like it if we went around like old frumps? Just tell me that!"

I wisely made no answer to this, affecting to be busy with the lock of my wardrobe door. And the next minute I began spreading over the bed my sores of the vintage of two seasons back. I knew that nothing would so quickly make Mrs. Durkee forget a real or a fancied grievance as the sight of dresses, new or old. I knew something else, also, something that made me welcome this opportunity of showing her my wardrobe. The little woman has a rare taste and discrimination in dress, and a positive knack in designing and "fixing over" things. That it would only be a matter of a week or two before Dicky would wish me to accompany him to dinner in a play in town I was sure.

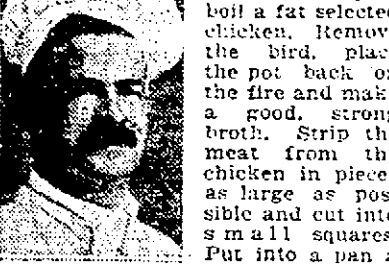

I had nothing modish to wear, for I had bought only the simplest, most necessary things during the war. My evening and afternoon gowns had the unmistakable look of being out of date, which, while it bothered me but little, would, I knew, annoy my husband's fastidious taste.

Chicken Hash

LONG ACRE.

Thoroughly boil a fat selected chicken. Remove the bird, place the pot back on the fire and make a good, strong broth. Strip the meat from the chicken in pieces as large as possible and cut into small squares. Put into a pan a large piece of butter and a trifle of onion very finely chopped. Cook thoroughly, then add the chicken with one quarter the quantity of cold boiled potatoes cut in small pieces and two finely chopped hard boiled eggs. Season with salt and pepper and a little red peppers (optional). Cut in small stices, take an equal quantity of the broth, add to it when boiling an equal quantity of cream; pour over the chicken and cook slowly, stirring constantly until a proper consistency just before serving with the yolks of three raw eggs.

HOW MANY MEALS A DAY?
The story is advanced from time to time that one or two meals a day would be preferable to the three commonly served in this country. If the same amount of food is eaten, United States Department of Agriculture food specialists state that it is hard to see the advantage of two very hearty meals over three ordinary ones.

SMILES

First Lad—I hear Phyllis is going to marry a chap in the army. Second Lad—Well, I daresay a man who makes a business of war might be able to get on with her.

He—You're one of the kind of women who believe they never did anything foolish in their lives. She—I couldn't believe that. Didn't I marry you?

"Mr. Mingleby, would you mind telling me how you made your first mistake?" "I made it by sticking strictly to business—my own business, you know!"

She—No! I like you very much indeed, but I couldn't marry a spendthrift. He—How do you mean a spendthrift? She—By the way you have been wasting money on me.

Miss—Did you water the ferns in the drawing room, Norah? Ma—Yes, mum. Don't you hear the water dripping on the carpet?

ATLANTA WOMAN SAYS IT'S GRAND

After Taking Tanlac Declares She Will Soon Be As Well As Anybody.

"I just want you to know and everybody else to know what this Tanlac means to me. I was sure, I said Mrs. Emma Briggs, who lives at 48 Crew street, Atlanta, Ga., when she called for her second bottle, recently. 'I have been sick so long and suffered so much that I feel like I wouldn't be doing right if I did not let everybody know what it has done in my case.'"

"For the past six or seven years I have been in a run-down condition, nervous, weak and at times very dizzy. I had nervous headaches and indigestion perfectly awful. My stomach was so weak I could not digest the lightest kind of food. I was so weak and depressed I was simply all to pieces, and could not do anything. I had become so despondent over my condition that I thought nothing would help me."

"I certainly was lucky for me when I heard of Tanlac. It is not like any other medicine I have taken. It seems to reach the stomach and is a tonic, too, because my appetite is good now and I digest what I eat. 'If fresh as a herring from the very first dose, and the change in my condition has been wonderful. I have not weighed lately, but I know I must have gained a whole lot in weight. Everybody notices how much better I am looking.'"

"If anyone had told me that there was a medicine on earth that would make me feel and sleep like this, Tanlac has done it. I would not have believed it. Actually I do not believe that there is a better medicine on earth like it. I believe by the time I get through with another bottle I will be as well and strong as anybody."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and in Oakland by The Owl Drug Company, 1000 Broadway.

S. F. Editor, Crazy by Flu, Kills Self

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 13.—William Rannells, employed on the editorial staff of "The Examiner," died last evening in San Francisco as the result of injuries sustained by jumping out of a window at St. Luke's Hospital while delirious from influenza. Rannells was taken to the hospital on Tuesday. Wednesday night pneumonia developed, and at 3 o'clock yesterday morning he became delirious. The nurse left the room a few minutes and while she was gone Rannells sprang from his bed and leaped through the window.

So strong was the momentum with which he hurled himself that he broke glass, screen and sash, and plunged head first to the pavement three stories below. His skull was fractured. He was a native of Texas.

The ranch are believed to have placed a stockade on the site of Chicago a century before Fort Dearborn was established.

HERTZ ORCHESTRA CHARMS U. OF C.

By ROY HARRISON DANFORTH
At the opening of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra season last evening at the University of California Alfred Hertz conducted his musicians through a program that was craftily chosen. Next week he will begin education of the student body and its friends to symphonies, but last evening he selected numbers that were certain to win them to adoration of orchestral music, but not particularly to test musical knowledge.

Still it was a program of many beauties and of nothing that approached tawdriness unless, perhaps, the always questionable "Danse Macabre" of Saint-Saens. This may have been a request number, for Hertz played it at a famous symposium last week and both times it aroused a considerable pounding of palms.

The Hertzian presentation of the prelude to "Lohengrin" at the very outset must have made the new auditors of this orchestra aware of its ability. That ethereal thing seems to have been made particularly for the sort of strings that the Hertz group possesses. But as they soared with the flute and then divided, with each other, they cried an ave and a vale of wondrous beauty to the Grail.

It seems almost unjust to reserve for this fourth paragraph a mention of the "Kol Nidrei" interpretation of Horace Britt. In artistry Mr. Britt's place is at the beginning. In the remembrance of those who went away from the concertium last evening the profundity, the feeling and the intelligence with which he played the Bruch work must have entitled him similarly to precedence.

Ernest Bloch's "Schelomo" will know how he played this Hebraic work, the dignity with which he invested it, the spiritual height which he permitted it to achieve.

The "Scheherazade" suite, that rainbow in a kaleidoscope which film-sky Korsakov left us, was the latter half of the program. Mr. Hertz played it with his usual zest and fire and with its occasional mood of poetry, but not, I thought, with his usual clarity in the last movement. These concluding mazes secrete lurking depths of incoherence which he almost always has been careful to avoid. But the effect of the whole suite was beyond question and the effectiveness of Louis Persinger's violin as well.

IRISH TO EXPLAIN REPUBLIC BONDS

Plans for the educational campaign in Alameda and Contra Costa counties preliminary to the launching March 1 of the California drive for the sale of Irish Republic bond certificates will be completed Sunday night at the Oakland auditorium.

All the Irish-American societies of the Eastbay district will be represented at the meeting, according to reports filed at the State headquarters of the American Commission on Irish Independence.

William A. Lynch of Oakland, chairman of the Eastbay district organization directing the bond certificate drive, will preside at Sunday night's meeting. The committee of Alameda and Contra Costa counties arranging for the meeting includes John P. Chambers, R. J. Heney, Frank J. Walsh, James Walsh, John C. Leo McCarthy, John J. Cox, Richard Barry, James Brennan, Judge Dixon Phillips, John T. McNamara and others.

The first Eastbay rally in the campaign will be held at Elmhurst next Tuesday night in St. Louis hall under the auspices of the Thomas McDonough branch of the F. O. I. P. Andrew J. Gallagher, chairman of the San Francisco bay counties district campaign committee, will be the principal speaker.

On Thursday night in the Native Sons' hall in Berkeley a rally will be held under the auspices of the O'Donovan Rossa branch of the F. O. I. P. Judge Dixon Phillips will preside. Frank Dodde and George Harkins will speak.

City chairmen have been appointed for Contra Costa county municipalities as follows:

California's quota of the $10,000,000 American issue of the Irish Republic bond certificates is $1,500,000. The sale drive opens March 1 and closes March 17. A number of Eastern states where the drive is already in progress are reported to have exceeded their quotas by Frank P. Walsh, national chairman of the American Commission on Irish Independence, which is in charge of the American rotation.

HOLDUP MAN IS CAPTURED WHEN VICTIM YELLS

When William Henderson, 65 Linda street, met with a holdup man last night and looked down the short length of a business-like revolver, he upset all precedent concerning what a man in his situation should do. Instead of submitting quietly to a search for valuables he set up a series of blood-curdling shouts that aroused a neighborhood and brought to his assistance Roy Fielding and Roy Jones. The holdup man ran and dodged for fifteen blocks while Henderson and his rescuers pursued.

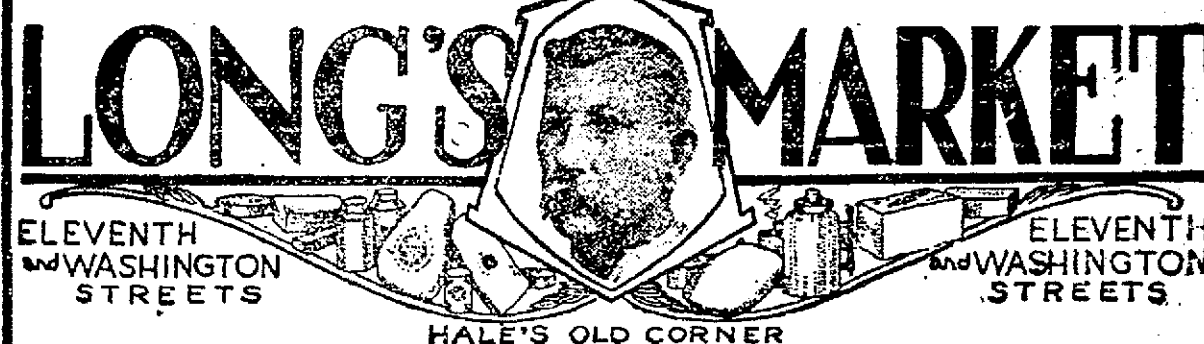

The chase led down San Pablo avenue to Sixteenth street, thence to Broadway and into Fourteenth street, back to San Pablo and into a fruit store at 1561 San Pablo, where the frightened holdup man barricaded himself behind a door.

Inspectors Frank Neal and Frank Rosnick went in and got him. At the police station the man gave the name of Clarence Miller and is said to have admitted the attempt at robbery.

GOLDEN STATE
SWISS CHEESE
MADE IN CALIFORNIA

SHIPPED TO SWITZERLAND

Like the American Doughboy, who went overseas to triumph, Golden State Swiss Cheese has crossed the Atlantic and won another victory for California.

CALIFORNIA CENTRAL CREAMERIES

has shipped to Switzerland two carloads of Golden State Swiss Cheese, manufactured in Humboldt County, and sold it side by side with the best product of Alpine pastures.

For four centuries the Swiss fed the world a cheese that defied imitation. Today the Swiss are eating Golden State Swiss Cheese in Switzerland.

It was the scientific accuracy of process developed by the Research Department of California Central Creameries that made Golden State Swiss Cheese, with its big holes and quality, that stands the test of sale in Switzerland.

Long ago Golden State Butter went overseas and established in London the reputation of Golden State Products. Now Golden State Swiss Cheese has earned the right to claim equality with the best in Switzerland.

OAKS SELL SAMMY BOHNE TO THE SEATTLE BALL CLUB

TOMMY SIMPSON ARRANGES ANOTHER ALL-STAR BOXING SHOW FOR NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Del Howard Will Be on Job Monday

Wares' Infield Troubles End When He Lands Oak Infielder.

By EDDIE MURPHY

Herbert McFarlin, secretary of the Oakland baseball club, found a few seconds' time yesterday afternoon to stop worrying about where the Oaks will do their training next spring, or if Cal Ewing will buy any more new ball players in the east, and instead he put a few pieces of good kindling in the "hot stove" and helped to make some interesting news for baseball fans. The first news to be uncovered through the efforts of the Oaks' secretary was that Del Howard will be in Oakland next Monday morning to get busy in fitting up his Oaks for next summer. Next is a real "knockout" to the fans—Sammy Bohne will not draw his checks from the Oakland ball club next season. That ought to be enough news for the Oakland fans in one day.

Tes, Herbert has been mighty generous with his baseball fans these days, and it was only a couple of days ago that he gave out the glad news that Cal Ewing had bought pitcher Pat Egan from the big leagues.

Clyde Wares Purchases Bohne for Seattle

Sammy Bohne announced in a letter to Billy Lewis the other day that he was leaving the Oakland club and taking up baseball in the San Joaquin valley, where a number of prominent residents made him firm propositions to play ball in the valley next summer. One of the big propositions to play ball in the valley next summer was made by Clyde Wares, who is a well-known baseball player in the valley. Bohne, but you are all wrong. It is not because Sammy has been offered a big contract by Clyde Wares that he is leaving the Oaks. It is because he has been offered a big contract by Clyde Wares that he is leaving the Oaks. It is because he has been offered a big contract by Clyde Wares that he is leaving the Oaks.

Landing of Bohne is Worry Off Wares' Mind

Bohne played good ball for the Oaks last summer, but Clyde Wares and the other Oaks fans were not satisfied with his play. They thought he was a "hot stove" kind of player, and they thought he was a "hot stove" kind of player. They thought he was a "hot stove" kind of player, and they thought he was a "hot stove" kind of player. They thought he was a "hot stove" kind of player, and they thought he was a "hot stove" kind of player. They thought he was a "hot stove" kind of player, and they thought he was a "hot stove" kind of player.

Del May Have to Put Shears on Hurling Staff

As for Del Howard being on the job next Monday to make preliminary arrangements for the Oaks' training camp, it is a fact. Del Howard is a well-known baseball player in the valley, and he is a well-known baseball player in the valley. Del Howard is a well-known baseball player in the valley, and he is a well-known baseball player in the valley. Del Howard is a well-known baseball player in the valley, and he is a well-known baseball player in the valley.

BASKETBALL

The Athens Athletic Club can just about proclaim itself the champions of the Oakland basketball league after winning a clean-cut victory over the St. Joseph's Athletic Club at Plymouth Center by a 35-15 score in one of the hardest fought games of the season. The score does not tell the whole story, however, for the Athens team was not only victorious but they were also the victors in a most interesting and exciting game. The game was played in a most interesting and exciting manner, and the Athens team was the victor in a most interesting and exciting game.

New Rule Made Weight Fives In A. L. Should Of Oak. High Prove Popular

By JACK VICKOR, International News Service Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—In prohibiting trades or sales of players after July 1, the American League has taken a step that will do much toward restoring the sporting spirit in baseball. This was the belief expressed in local baseball circles today in connection with the opinion that the National League made a mistake by refusing to adopt a like rule. The new American League rule will put a stop to indiscriminate bidding for players in the middle of the hot pennant races. It will do away with the practice of bidding for players in the middle of the hot pennant races. It will do away with the practice of bidding for players in the middle of the hot pennant races.

J. Noye Will Box Farren In Windup

Bud Ridley and Bill Mascott Signed for Second Main Go.

By BOB SHAND

It is no secret that Tommy Simpson likes to see the fans pack the seats at the auditorium for boxing shows, and to show that he is not trying to make it a secret to the fans, Tommy has announced another all-star boxing card, to be staged at the local auditorium next Wednesday night. A record crowd was on hand last Wednesday night to see Jimmy Duffy, the local lightweight, give Harlem Eddie Kelly a tryout, which about let Kelly out as a main-eventer until the time that he can show better than he did in his first appearance.

Johnny Noye of Philadelphia is the only one who has signed for his first local appearance. But this time Noye will not act as a trial horse, as Tommy has wished the job on Frankie Farren, the San Francisco lightweight, who battled Allie Noye to draw at the last show.

From the looks of the card that Simpson has announced for his next show, it is safe to say that he is a real boxing man. He has a lot of good fighters on his card, and he has a lot of good fighters on his card. He has a lot of good fighters on his card, and he has a lot of good fighters on his card.

1898 VETERANS

Word has been received from the headquarters of the Department of California and Nevada that Oakland has been awarded the Encampment for the Veterans of the War with Spain and Philippine Insurrection to be held in Oakland on May 3, 4 and 5.

As veterans they celebrate their twenty-first birthday this year and the seventeenth annual encampment since the founding of their order. The United Spanish War Vet-worthy record as seventy-five of their members again enlisted in the World War.

the camps of California and Nevada will attend and there will be a much larger number of visitors and veterans who will take advantage of the special railroad rates and come to Oakland at this time.

There will also be a large number of delegates to the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Spanish War Veterans, who will hold their annual election and convention at the same time as the veterans.

The coming of the convention to Oakland this year will mean that San Francisco will be the department headquarters for next year.

Pastor Warns U. S. of "Jingo" Menaces

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 13.—Misrepresentation and jingoism both in this country and Japan which, if not checked, are certain to precipitate the present Japanese war, were deplored by Rev. Thomas Van Ness of the Second Unitarian church of Boston who has returned from an Oriental trip.

Dr. Van Ness declares the Japanese are attempting to do in Korea the same things this country is seeking to achieve in the Philippines and Porto Rico. "Admitting that the Japanese insist on their language being used in the schools, he recalls that this country is doing the same in its two island possessions."

"The Japanese are accused of doing things in Korea of which they are altogether innocent," he added.
He investigated three separate incidents in which Japanese outrages in Korea were charged by missionaries and learned that the charges were false. "There is absolute misrepresentation on both sides which must be stopped if we hope to avoid a needless war."

Restore Confidence to Balk
Anarchy, S. F. Banker Says

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 13.—Consolidation of war debts of all nations involved in the world conflict, as well as outstanding trade balances, which would provide international obligations guaranteed by all powers involved, was advocated by John H.
Arnold of San Francisco, speaking before the United States-Mexican Trade Conference here yesterday.
Arnold, who is a representative of the American Bankers' Association, urged that an international clearinghouse be established as an adjunct to his plan.

He declared an international bankers conference should be called immediately and that commercial men of all nations be invited to send representatives. He said such a conference should provide measures for standardizing currency and for the elimination of exchange fluctuations.

"The United States today stands in a sad and undesirable position, being the world's greatest creditor with her customers bankrupt," declared Arnold. "There is no question that all nations owing war debts will eventually be able to pay, with the exception of Germany, which cannot pay in full and must have her indemnities obligations reduced. The big question at present is re-establishment of confidence and the equalizing of exchange fluctuations."

As the world's leading creditor, the United States must do the logical thing and call a creditors' meeting to receive and analyze debtors' statements, extend new credit and give time and even reduce debts of necessary. An immediate meeting of bankers throughout the world should be held to study the resources and liabilities of all nations concerned.

"I have reason to believe if the United States should take the first step, England would follow.
In addition I believe the United States Federal Reserve System should be internationalized."

Arnold closed his address predicting that unless broad, comprehensive action was taken immediately to restore public confidence the world would be ruled by anarchy.
Arnold's view will be debated at the meeting tomorrow.

Seven Die of Flu
on Japanese Liner

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 13.—Influenza on board the Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner Shino Maru, which arrived here yesterday from Yokohama, was fatal to seven steerage passengers. Seventy cases were treated by the ship physician. There were five deaths before arrival at Honolulu, one during the stay at the island and another three days ago.

Professor C. K. Edmunds, president of the Canton University, arrived here on board the Shino Maru to lecture on China in hope of improving the United States with general conditions there and to interest capitalists in the Far East.

Another prominent passenger was B. G. Hiveschinsky, accompanied by his bride formerly Miss Frances Robertson, daughter of a Columbia
S. C. banker. Hiveschinsky said that if foreigners will leave Siberia
the people of Russia and Siberia will settle all questions there in a short time and normal conditions will be restored.

NEW STAGE LINE
DENIED PERMIT

Declaring that the Peerless Auto Stage Association which is carrying passengers between San Jose and Oakland is giving adequate service and is amply able to meet additional demands, the Railroad Commission today denied the application of John M. Maurer and William M. Stanford for a permit to operate between these two cities.

It was claimed by the applicants that the through traffic between Oakland and San Jose had developed to such an extent that passengers desiring transportation to intermediate points could not secure passage because of crowded stages.
Stanford and Maurer proposed to serve the communities of San Leandro, El Cerrito, Vallejo, Napa, Mar-sonic Home, Niles, Irvington, Warm Springs, Milpitas and Wayne.

Testimony, however, showed that the Peerless stages had a daily average of 212 unused seats from Oakland to San Jose and intermediate points and a daily average of 204 unused seats from San Jose to Oakland and intermediate points.

The route sought to be served by Maurer and Stanford was served up to October 1, by the De Luxe Transportation company. The De Luxe people abandoned the route without consent of the Railroad Commission and their operating permit was cancelled. The credentials of the De Luxe company had arranged to sell it to Maurer and Stanford but the approval of the transfer was denied by the commission which held that abandonment of service terminated the operating permit.

PRICE RISE CONTINUING IN GERMANY

AMERICAN HEADQUARTERS
COBLENZ, Germany, Feb. 13.—Continued shortage of raw material, increased cost of fuel and wages is being reflected in a general increase in prices throughout Germany, according to the German newspapers.

A Hamburg rubber goods company has announced a 20 per cent increase in the cost of all goods. Leather goods have gone up in price enormously. Some dealers say that the price of a leather coat is today impossible to do business in the leather line if the price makes another jump. Trade prices have recommended that leather goods be permitted to be imported free of luxury tax.

German newspapers are contem-

Despite the rise of the price of living due to the high inflation, German newspapers published long accounts recently to the effect that many foreigners, especially Russians, are flocking to Germany to take advantage of the low cost of living due to the low value of the mark. One newspaper says: "The cost of living for a foreigner in Germany today is probably one-fourth of what it was in 1923. The reason is attracted by the cheapness of living conditions are flocking to various parts of Germany. Many of these are Russian emigrants who escaped from the hands of the Czarism, who have money enough to buy a house, a car or so, but who, by coming to Germany, find themselves provided with enough money to last them five or six years."

Oakland High Girls Hold Special Rally

Oakland High girls this morning held a special girls' rally in Chabot Hall. This is the first of its kind in the history of the school and Katherine Eisinger, the rally leader, is responsible for its success.

The rally opened with a "Wiskie Wadia," the rousing yell which is known to all Oakland High students and friends. Music featured on the program, Alicia Weaver and Charles Crawford singing some of the latest song hits. The speakers of the day were Miss Ruth Wynbladh and Miss Case, the two girls' physical directors; Florence McKeegan and Mary Glick, representatives of tennis and basketball, and Alice Megladdery, who brought a message from the alumni.

With Thelma Climo, the assistant rally leader, Kate Ebinger led the girls in closing cheers which predict a live semester for girls' athletics in the Oakland High School.

$4,000,000 Campaign Planned by Chicago

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—Mayor William Hale Thompson and Chicago captains of industry joined hands yesterday in support of a plan to boost Chicago to the world at an expense of $4,000,000. A million dollars will be spent yearly for the next four years with newspapers, magazines, moving pictures, bill boards and other means of advertising.

ACTION WILL DECIDE FATE OF MUSEUM

Whether or not Oakland gets the African animals that will be collected on the hunting expedition of H. S. G. and Louis Schuchman, depends largely on the action of the city council members after hearing an explanation of the proposed museum plans for the city, at a meeting in the museum lecture hall tonight, according to Curator John Rowley of the museum.

No official action can be taken by the council tonight but pledges to appropriate $100,000 for the construction of the first unit, or natural history building, for the proposed museum will be asked of the councilmen.

Besides the council members there will be present at the meeting W. J. Petersen, commander of the local post of American Legion, the library and museum committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, Alexander Stewart, head of the Oakland Community Service, and others interested in the museum project.

St. H. de Young of San Francisco, who has been an active promoter of San Francisco's Golden Gate Park Memorial museum, will speak on the value of a museum to a city at the meeting tonight.

Although the museum project calls for a group of five buildings to include a natural history building, an art museum, an ethnological and historical museum, a commercial and manufactures exhibit and a war memorial building, the meeting tonight will work only to obtain a pledge for the construction of the natural history unit in order to "cash" the Snow-Simson collection for this city.

Several local architects are working on plans for the group based on models for the interior prepared by the staff of the Oakland museum. These will be presented and discussed at tonight's meeting.

Although construction of the other four units might be delayed indefinitely, it is necessary to construct the natural history building immediately in order to house the collection of mammals which will be shipped from Africa beginning in about six months when the party will have worked its way in to the depths of the African jungles.

What action is taken tonight, Rowley said, will be cable to the Snow-Simson party, which was scheduled to arrive at Cape Town, South Africa, this week. If the council does not agree to construction of the natural history building, it is probable that Simson will cable back instructing that the offer of Los Angeles to construct a $2,500,000 museum to house the collection be accepted.

TRAINING PLAN MISUNDERSTOOD, PERSHING SAYS

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Feb. 12.—Universal military training was advocated in an address here by General John J. Pershing, who denounced the plan being proposed and opposed in congress, and charged the opposition with failure to comprehend the proposed system and "its worth to the young manhood of the nation."

"I am strongly of the belief that every young man in the country is in need of a period of intensive military training," he said. "In urgent universal military training, I am not only thinking of the necessities, but of the great physical benefit that a period of training such as the army gives, would be to our young men."

"Those who oppose the plan do so largely because they fail to comprehend the real meaning of the plan and the real benefit that it will be to the country. This is a big subject and it must be carefully analyzed before it is actually comprehended."

Easton New Name for Union Savings Bldg.

An eleven-story skyscraper, the "Easton building," will move into Oakland on March 1 and take the place of the Union Savings Bank building. As the alteration of a skyscraper on the front and sides of the city's first skyscraper are all that will be necessary to affect the change, there is to be no inconvenience to tenants.

A change in name for the structure at Thirteenth and Broadway has been considered necessary for some time as an annex of the bank have complained that since the bank retired from business they have been unable to find it.

The new name is after the owner, Amel Easton.

Woman 'Raffles,' Ouija Board Adept, Sent to Insane Asylum

Her use of the ouija board which finally developed a state where she could write spirit messages without its use, was related by Mrs. Jessie MacArthur the "Woman Raffles," during her insanity hearing at the Emergency hospital today. She was declared insane and committed to the Napa State hospital by the insanity board, composed of Judge Thomas C. Gorman, the State Attorney and Dr. Pauline Neubaumer.

Due to be placed on trial next Monday on the charge of grand larceny for the theft of a cloak and $7000 worth of jewels belonging to Mrs. Elizabeth C. Bradshaw, 1726 Oakland avenue, Piedmont, where she had been employed as a domestic, it is probable that the charge against her will be dismissed by the district attorney, James P. Montgomery, attorney for Mrs. MacArthur, notified Judge Church that he would make a request to have the charge dismissed.

After describing her use of the ouija board and spiritualistic tendencies Mrs. MacArthur declared that she constantly received messages from the spirit of a woman she had found hanging in the garret of a house when she was a girl. The spirit of this woman had advised her to take the same course in departing this life. Mrs. MacArthur said.

Mrs. Hattie White, matron at the county jail, testified that she had prevented Mrs. MacArthur from carrying out this purpose by choking her with a tape torn from her clothing. Dr. Carl E. Curdus, county jail physician, testified that Mrs. MacArthur had been on a hunger strike for two weeks previous to her attempted suicide and had refused to take subsequent nourishment to sustain an adult person. She told Mrs. White that she was not in the right spiritualistic state to accept food.

Asked about her relatives, Mrs. MacArthur said she had two sisters, but declined to give their names as she did not want them to know anything about her troubles.

PIEDMONT, Feb. 12.—Mrs. Jessie MacArthur, who was found insane today has been identified by San Diego police as being the woman sought for a robbery in the southern city on October 19. This information is contained in a letter received this morning from James Patrick, San Diego chief of police. To Police Chief Burton P. Becker. The letter says the San Diego authorities do not intend to prosecute. Besides a quart of whiskey and a bottle of sherry worth about $80 worth of feminine wearing apparel was stolen in the southern job.

Mrs. MacArthur was arrested here by Sergeant H. J. Moore and Policeman G. L. Davis a week ago with $7000 worth of jewelry in her possession. She had hired out as a cook to Mrs. Elizabeth Bradshaw to gain entrance to the Bradshaw house. According to the letter from San Diego, she obtained entrance to the house from which goods were stolen by hiring out as a cook to a fashionable home there.

He was unconscious when found at the foot of the pole by Mrs. J. B. Juniper of the Union avenue, and hailed C. C. Griffin who was passing in his automobile an ambulance was taken to the Merritt Hospital where he is under the care of Dr. Charles A. Duke.

Angora Cat Captured As Goldfish Thief
PIEDMONT, Feb. 12.—Goldfish have been disappearing regularly from the pond in front of the home of Miss Helen Bowman, 306 Wildwood avenue, for the past two weeks, since a friend made Miss Bowman a gift of a thoroughbred Persian Angora cat.

Afternoon M. Matheson detected the cat and along toward dinner time the cat approached the pond and reaching into the water scooped a fish and lifted it out of the water. Matheson fell out of the back with a heavy lunge. The cat was captured with the evidence in its mouth. Miss Bowman is debating in her mind whether she values the possession of cat or gold fish most.

COLLARS ARE SOLD LOWER IN OAKLAND

As a result of a price battle that is being waged between local merchants, men's collars are today cheaper in Oakland than anywhere in the United States.

The battle developed a few days ago when collar manufacturers announced that the price of collars would be $2.75 per dozen wholesale. The retailers were, therefore, urged to sell collars at 50 cents each, realizing a profit of $1.35 a dozen. In their windows and in newspaper advertisements the local stores announced that the price of collars would go to 30 cents.

One store in Oakland advertised collars at 25 cents and promised that this price would remain until the middle of the month. This roused the ire of other dealers and the price of collars began to drop. One department store offered six collars for 25 cents, and another marked its stock to 20 cents each. Other stores cut the price to 25 cents. The average price remains at 20 and 25 cents, the larger department stores selling at 20 cents.

On top of the sudden drop in prices the collar manufacturers of one brand this morning announced that that brand of collar will hereafter sell at $2.40 wholesale, which is taken to indicate that all brands of collars will soon be selling at that price. If the price of 20 cents is maintained, the retailers will be selling at below cost.

Indications are that the price will remain at 20 and 25 cents despite the raise imposed by the manufacturers. Under those conditions, it is said, the smaller merchants will refuse to handle collars, while the larger stores will handle them at a loss to accommodate their customers.

Public Health Center to Protest Board's Ruling

Protest will be made by Alameda County Public Health Center to the board of education on the ruling of that body relating to the exemption of students from medical examination, according to a resolution which was adopted at the annual meeting last night. A committee will be appointed immediately to wait upon the board of education.

Judge Charles E. Snook was re-elected chairman of the board of governors. The officers elected to serve with him during the coming year are: First vice-chairman, Harry B. Wilson, superintendent of schools, Berkeley; second vice-chairman, Miss Ethel Moore; third vice-chairman, Professor Thomas Reed; secretary, Arthur Tashner; treasurer, P. E. Bowles; and to the two vacancies occurring on the executive board, Joseph R. Knowland, Alameda, and August Vollmer, chief of police, Berkeley. The nominating committee included Dr. William H. Streetman, Mrs. Robert Glenn and Dr. Chesley Bush.

More than 100 prominent men and women attended the "house-warming," which was a feature of the annual meeting and for which the entire plant, recently renovated, was thrown open. Delegates assembled from all parts of Alameda county and included representation of students from the medical department of the University of California.

The young women assistants at the health center acted as guides. Fourteen clinics under experts are in operation.

Dr. Alvin Powell, director of Alameda County Public Health Center; Dr. Ethel Watters and Dr. B. C. Fleishner made the addresses of occasion. Dr. Watters named Alameda county as the first public health center to be established in California. Dr. Fleishner, claiming that children's health belonged to the State, advocated that it be looked out after by governmental agencies.
